WEYMOUTH Pavilion is coming back to life again under new organisers who have already signed up several major shows and events.

Theatre manager Phil Say has won council backing for his Weymouth Pavilion Community Interest Company to run the complex and he has lost no time starting work to make it a success.

He already has council promises for a ten-year lease, a £150,000 loan to be paid back between 2018-2023, a £30,000 annual grant, 80 percent rates relief and council support for the Pavilion's programme of events.

Mr Say confirmed one big event – Julie Storey's Let's Dance extravaganza on July 19th – will definitely go ahead.

He said: "We have also now confirmed that Weymouth's beer festival, run by the West Dorset branch of the Campaign for Real Ale, is no longer under threat from Pavilion uncertainty and will go ahead here in October."

West Dorset CAMRA spokesman Michel Hooper-Immins said: "Assuming we can reach a satisfactory agreement with the lessees, we intend to hold our beer festival at the Ocean Room on Friday and Saturday October 4th-5th.

"The Ocean Room has always been our venue of first choice and we have delayed making alternative arrangements in the hope that the Pavilion would reopen soon.

JACKIE Ireland and her husband bought Newlands Holiday Park in Charmouth in 1999. She is originally from Solihull in the West Midlands but moved to the area 38-years-ago. She met her husband while on holiday at Durdle Door and, after marrying in 1975, moved to his Lulworth home, but they have slowly been moving west ever since.

Her husband's family had owned holiday parks since the war and Jackie worked at his family business for 22 years before they bought Newlands.

The couple has two grown up children.

■ WHAT does your role at Newlands entail?

My role at Newlands is very much hands on managing this family business with my husband. We are lucky to have our eldest daughter working with us and we employ 15 people all year and up to about 50 in peak season. We all work very much as a team - although we all have defined roles everyone can pretty much muck in where needed. In the winter months we are busy getting everything ship shape and in place for the next year's guests. We sort out marketing, health and safety, maintenance, spring cleaning, planning, staff recruitment and training. We are always on the look out for ways to improve Newlands and the guests' experience.

■ WHAT do you enjoy about your job?

I enjoy talking to holidaymakers and meeting people from all walks of life. We have guests that are travelling through or working in the area but, on the whole, our customers are taking a short break or family holiday. I have known children arrive from a city and to see them experience the sea or even see sheep and cows for the first time is wonderful.

I love the fact that with this job you never know what the day holds for you - you do have to be ready to turn your hand to anything. With over 100,000 guests visiting us every year the job is never dull and changes as the seasons change.

■ ARE there any special events coming up at Newlands?

We have just held our first beer festival here at Newlands, which has been very successful. I've been driving the team here mad singing all the shanty songs all day long. We had plenty of local beers, local entertainers and some great local food. We are very lucky to have a great chef who believes in using local produce.

We are also hoping to get involved in the Food Rocks festival in Lyme Regis in September.

■ WHAT do you like about the Charmouth area?

I think Charmouth and the whole area in which we live is amazing. It's so unspoilt, has fantastic beaches, and an abundance of natural beauty - the sea and countryside. Charmouth has it all - it is a thriving village.

■ WHAT would you add to or change about the village if you could?

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

I wouldn't change anything about Charmouth, expect perhaps a little more sunshine at the moment!

■ ARE you a member of any local groups?

I am a member of Lyme Regis Gig Club. I have met some great friends through the gig club, we are all pretty much obsessed with it. I am also a fundraiser for the club. I am also a member of the West Dorset Holiday Parks Association, which is very active in promoting the area and raising standards in the industry along with good practice to ensure all our guests have a wonderful experience while holidaying here.

■ WHAT are your personal interests?

I love to spend time with family and friends. I love walking and I am walking the South West Coast Path - very slowly. I really enjoy gig rowing both competitively and socially. I enjoy the thrill of competitive rowing and race coxing both of which I have done in local regattas and the World Championships in the Scilly Isles. I go circuit training in the winter to help keep up the fitness.

I enjoy most water sports in or on the water. I was a very keen swimmer when younger and have been known to play a round of golf or two. I enjoy gardening although I don't spend enough time doing it.

■ WHERE is your ideal holiday destination and why?

The South Hams - it's not far away, is unspoilt, beautiful and has some good restaurants. Another favourite is Greece especially the small, quiet Greek Islands because of the beautiful beaches, warm seas, friendly people, fresh fish and a slower pace of life. If I didn't live near Lyme Regis it would be top of my list as a favourite holiday destination for me. Everyday I feel so lucky to live in this area.

■ WHAT would you do if you won the Lottery?

I would take the whole of the Newlands team on a great holiday as well as my family, of course. Perhaps buy a quiet tropical island where everyone could relax in the sun.

■ WHAT three items would you want with you on a deserted island?

Two frocks and a mirror... and I still wouldn't be able to decide which one to wear!

New chairman for Weymouth BID

A NEW chairman has been elected for the Weymouth Business Improvement District.

The first Weymouth BID management meeting following a recent "yes" vote for Weymouth to have BID agreed that chairman Nigel Reed would step down and Barrie Huett of chartered accountants Albert Goodman would take his place.

Mr Reed said: "My role as chairman was to help achieve a 'yes' vote, so now is an appropriate time for a new Weymouth BID chairman to be appointed who will be able to take the project to the next phase.

"I will continue as the Weymouth BID co-ordinator as there is still plenty of work to do on the information and procedures to elect a new Weymouth BID management board, develop the advertising campaign for the Weymouth BID manager position together with the formation of the tender proposal process.

"All of these decisions will be considered and agreed by the new board to be completed in August, so until then I am still going to be busy."

by Harry Walton
hds Walton@yahoo.co.uk

Mr Huett said: "Nigel will be a very hard act to follow given his enthusiasm, commitment and energy in forming the building blocks to restore Weymouth's prosperity in these difficult times.

"I also very much look forward to working with the new BID management board when appointed."

The Weymouth BID will be introduced as from September 1st and there are many items to be addressed over the next couple of months including the board election and manager appointment, both of which will be discussed at an extraordinary general meeting in July.

More than 500 businesses were eligible to vote in the BID ballot which closed on May 31st. All businesses with a rateable value of £6,000 and above within the Weymouth BID area were entitled to vote.

Tributes paid to respected councillor, who died aged 83

RESPECTED Weymouth and Portland councillor Jim Churchouse has died at the age of 83 after a long illness.

Mr Churchouse was a prominent figure at borough and county council level who represented Wyke Regis.

Tributes to him have been led by Weymouth and Portland Mayor Councillor Ray Banham who said: "I was very sad to hear of his death.

"He was very involved with planning and housing. It was one of his main fortes and he was chairman of the council's planning committee for several years.

"Jim was a gentleman and he was a good councillor. There was not a single person on the council who did not get on with him.

"His main love was fishing and he used to enjoy going out on pier competitions.

"He will be sadly missed and my condolences go to his wife, June, and all his family."

Hoteliers concerned visitor parking permits will rise

HOTELIERS, guesthouse owners and leaseholders feel council plans to revolutionise parking in Weymouth and Portland are like the Curate's Egg...good in parts.

Their association's chairman, Dave Price, said his members welcomed plans to cut parking charges from £1.30 to just 80 pence an hour because it would boost day trip tourism and local businesses.

But he said members were not so happy about proposed parking permits to enable guests to park.

He added: "If my members want to buy an extra permit for their guests it will now cost them £100 not the current £70.

"This is extortionate. The claim is that businesses paying more than 20 percent tax will be able to claim it back, but few if any of my members earns that much.

"I have no major issue with high earners paying more, but to penalise lower earners even more is not on.

"They just seem to be an easy target and we want the council to think again – just about this aspect of the parking proposals – on Tuesday, July 2nd, when its management committee meets to discuss the matter."

Raising the flag for Armed Forces Day

MORE than 50 people gathered when a flag to mark Armed Forces Day was unfurled outside the council offices on North Quay, Weymouth.

A short service was taken by the Weymouth Royal Naval Association padre, the Rev Dennis Mould.

Weymouth RNA ceremonial officer Tony Seal said: "The flag represents all the veterans who didn't make it here today.

"Their sacrifice is one which will never be forgotten."

Council management committee chairman Councillor Mike Goodman said: "The flag shows the respect that Weymouth and Portland has for everything the Armed Forces have given this country.

"It is a clear and fitting way to recognise this important day and remember those who are still on active service today."

The flag was officially raised by Weymouth and Portland Mayor and Mayoress, Councillors Ray Banham and Pam Nixon.

Mr Banham said: "Our flag raising was one of thousands all over the country to mark the debt owed to the Armed Forces and, even more importantly this year, to mark the 70th anniversary of the Battle of the Atlantic."

See pages 6 & 7 for further coverage on Armed Forces Day in Weymouth.

RAISING the flag

Funding available for local organisations and charities

WEYMOUTH and Portland have been marked as "priority areas" to award £5,000-£25,000 for Dorset-based charities and constituted community groups with an annual income of less than £350,000.

The potential windfalls derive from a partnership between Dorset Community Foundation and People's Health Trust to support groups making applications to their Active Communities Programme-Health Full.

The PHT is very much focused on projects which are designed and run by local people, increase social connections and build networks and help people to make their community or neighbourhood even better.

Portland's Weston area along Chesil Beach including Fortuneswell is one area of focus and the Broadway area of Weymouth is another.

The charity or community group looking to apply does not have to be based in the specific area, but more than 90 percent of the project beneficiaries have to come from within that area.

Funding is available for both core costs and projects which can run for between nine months and two years.

To apply phone 01202 292255 or email foundation-admin@dorsetcf.org. Applicants can also apply online by visiting www.peopleshealthtrust.org.uk.

Weymouth Pavilion springing back to life

"Festivalgoers tell us what a good venue it is and we want to hold our beer festival in the Ocean Room.

"We wish Phil Say every success in his venture and look forward to a satisfactory outcome to our negotiations."

Mr Say added that attractions had to be offered at the Pavilion to bring people in and generate income.

He said: "So we are also looking to bring down a big name national comedian during the autumn and we are starting negotiations for the 2013 Weymouth Christmas pantomime.

"We hope this will be Aladdin by the Magic Beans company which has a proven track record for quality and success in Weymouth."

Mr Say stressed that people had to be patient while a full programme of events gained momentum.

He said: "We are starting from scratch. All these proposed events are in the pipeline and we are also talking with Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra (BSO), but it takes time to arrange these things.

"The BSO is not just going to turn up for a booking overnight. They need to talk with us so they can fit Weymouth Pavilion in with their own programme of commitments."

Mr Say is also having to bring the nuts and bolts of the Pavilion back up to speed.

He said: "Staging, lighting, audio, projection and general technical equipment is all still there, but we have IT experts coming in to install new computers and make sure our ticketing system is linked up with an on-line booking system for ease and speed of access.

"I am happy that with a few months of hard work we can give Weymouth the best Christmas present it has ever had – a successfully running Pavilion it can be proud of."

Mr Say said he hopes to widen the Pavilion's scope and make plans for full use of the Pavilion's many available spaces, venues and assets.

A SMILING Phil Say outside Weymouth Pavilion

Become a castaway for charity

A DORSET charity is looking for 24 men and women to take on a five-day "castaway" challenge in September.

Diverse Abilities Plus is looking for those who want to join in between Saturday, September 21st and Wednesday, September 25th at a mystery woodland in a beach location somewhere in the South West.

It says the event will suit anyone aged 18 years and over, from all walks of life.

"Whether you enter as an individual, or with a friend, family or colleagues you will have a fantastic time. It is also ideal for company team and motivational building. No level of physical fitness is required - just a sense of fun and adventure," said a charity spokesman.

Ken Whillock, from Dorchester, took part in last year's Castaway event: "It was not too challenging and good fun with a nice group of people. It was also very social with good 'man banter'."

The Seeker Castaway Five Day Challenge will start with participants jetting off on powerboats, provided by Powerboat Training UK.

During the event participants can join in a variety of fun activities, secret challenges and tasks to learn and complete, including survival techniques, building a natural shelter, fire lighting techniques, sea life-raft survival skills training, navigating by the stars, sea fishing and much more.

Sharon Wells, Events Fundraiser at Diverse Abilities Plus, said: "The Seeker Castaway Five Day Challenge is a once in a lifetime opportunity and by taking part you will help us to make a difference to the lives of children and adults with learning difficulties and profound physical disabilities.

"If you fancy a challenge or just want to get away from the daily routines and stresses of life, this is for you. You will learn unique survival skills, make new friends and overall have a fantastic, fun experience."

If you think you can survive the Seeker Castaway Five Day Challenge, entry is £50 per person and each participant is kindly asked by the charity to raise a minimum of £550 in sponsorship monies.

Diverse Abilities Plus will support participants fully with fundraising ideas to help reach their target easily.

For more information or to book/reserve your place now for this fantastic experience contact Sharon Wells by phone on 01202 718266 or email Sharon.wells@diverseabilitiesplus.org.uk.

Warning bird call apps could cause harm to wildlife

DORSET Wildlife Trust is launching an online campaign to raise awareness and warn people of the harm that can be caused to wildlife by using mobile phone apps which mimic birdsong.

Wardens on Brownsea Island have reported incidents of visitors using these mobile apps which imitate the unusual call of the Nightjar, to get a closer photograph.

All nesting birds are protected under The Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981, which states that it is an offence to intentionally disturb any nesting bird.

Chris Thain, Reserve Manager on Brownsea Island said: "The apps are becoming quite common, and are great, but their use needs some guidance I feel. I'm sure visitors would be devastated if they realised the possible disturbance they were causing to wildlife. We need to spread the word that use of these apps is not suitable for nature reserves and can be potentially harmful to sensitive species."

Tony Whitehead, Public Affairs Officer for RSPB in the South West said: "Repeatedly playing a recording of birdsong or calls to encourage a bird to respond in order to see it or photograph it can divert a territorial bird from other important duties, such as feeding its young. It is selfish and shows no respect to the bird. People should never use playback to attract a species during its breeding season."

Dorset Wildlife Trust will be discouraging the use of these widely available mobile phone apps on all of its 42 reserves across Dorset.

Signs have been put up at Brownsea Island, which is leased from the National Trust, to remind visitors they are advised not to use bird apps on our reserves.

Memorial bike ride

MEMORIES of a wonderful woman have encouraged friends to tackle a 140-mile bike ride round Dorset in her memory.

Charles McCaig of the Dorset drug intervention programme, Turning Point, on Weymouth Esplanade, will lead the ride in tribute to Lisa Hughes.

He said: "Myself, friends and colleagues are completing a charity bike ride for a special friend, Lisa Hughes, who sadly passed away unexpectedly last September aged 38.

"Lisa was a lady who could not do enough for everyone making us all feel special and listened too. She was always willing to talk and listen to me irrespective of the demands she had in work or personally. I feel lucky to have known this lady and feel privileged to call her a friend."

The group will start at Portland Bill on July 6th and ride along the coast road up Abbotsbury Hill to Bridport and on to Beaminster, Shaftsbury, Christchurch, Bournemouth, Poole, Wareham and back to finish at the CADAS office at Weymouth community hospital.

Participants will range from workers from all the local drug services, criminal justice services and people that Lisa has inspired.

Charles will complete the whole ride with at least two other people with others joining in along the route completing a variety of distances.

If anyone would like to make a donation their just-giving page is <http://www.justgiving.com/Charles-McCaig2>.

The event on Thursday, July 4th starts at 7.30pm and tickets costs £5 in advance or £6 on the door and include refreshments.

The musicians have played several times at Windsor Great Hall and organisers are expecting keen interest in tickets.

They are available via Weldmar on 01305-261800 or from Pat Scarlett on 01305-833469.

Splice the mainbrace and toast The Royal Oak

A CEREMONY has been held in Weymouth to rededicate a bell remembering the battleship, the Royal Oak, which was sunk by a German submarine in Scapa Flow in 1939.

The rededication was held to coincide with the 70th anniversary of the Battle of the Atlantic, which included all ships in home water and the North Sea.

Royal Oak was the first major warship to be sunk in the Second World War.

The venue chosen for the rededication was the Royal Oak pub on Custom House Quay where members of Weymouth

by Harry Walton
hds Walton@yahoo.co.uk

Royal Naval Association gathered to remember the warship at a service taken by their padre, The Reverend Dennis Mould.

Those assembled heard a citation read by Weymouth RNA chairman Carl Robertson stating that the bell represented "the last watch" of the 833 crew who perished nearly 74 years ago.

The Reverend Mould then blessed the bell and the pub before watchman Alvin Hopper sounded eight bells to ring out the last watch.

Splice the Mainbrace was then called for all present and everyone adjourned to the bar where landlord Keith Treggiden was thanked for allowing the ceremony to take place.

He then announced a free drink for all attending.

Mr Robertson said: "This was an important event and we would like to thank Precision Engraving of Park Street, Weymouth, for their skill in engraving the bell."

Why can't campers clean up after themselves

■ AS residents of Fortuneswell my husband and I often enjoy walking on the west weares, but we are often upset by the amount of rubbish left by campers.

These people go to all the trouble of carrying camping equipment, food and drink down to the weares, but cannot be bothered to carry it away (surely a lighter bag).

My husband and some of the hut owners take the trouble to pick up the litter (pictured right) so people can enjoy the area.

Why can't the campers do the same?

■ STORMING ashore for the beach assault

■ ON board a 1944 18-ton Buick M18 Hellcat tank destroyer

■ TAKING the crowd's applause

MEDALS, memories and a seafront parade vied with spectacular beach assault and bridge building displays as Weymouth and Portland held colourful celebrations to mark Armed Forces Day.

A weekend with the "wow" factor began in front of several thousand seafront spectators when members of 22 Engineer Regiment from Tidworth staged a beach assault and bridge building exercise led by Warrent Officer Denis Waterman RE from Wyke Regis.

The amphibious beach assault tackled two enemy positions to secure the beach before a single storey medium girder bridge was built capable of carrying medium wheeled and tracked vehicles.

Warrent Officer Waterman said: "A huge amount of work was involved in orchestrating this event as the original unit involved had to leave Weymouth at short notice because of other duties and the men from Tidworth stepped into the breach at one week's notice."

"It is great credit to them for all their effort and the that of the civilian staff at Wyke Regis without whom this event would not have been possible."

Crowds then dispersed to enjoy a variety of military charity stall along the seafront before a convoy of military vehicles left the Pavilion to drive to Castletown, Portland, where they went on display.

On Sunday The Reverend Pip Salmon took a seafront Service of Remembrance which was followed by a massive parade of veterans and bands in front of cheering crowds.

Dorset Lord Lieutenant Mrs Valerie Pitt-Rivers said: "It was a wonderful occasion, particularly because we are able to remember the 70th anniversary of the Atlantic convoys."

Weymouth and Portland Mayor and Mayoress, Councillors Ray Banham and Pam Nixon, attended the whole weekend and Mr Banham said: "It was a fantastic weekend."

celebration of Armed Forces Day

"Thousands watched the beach assault and veterans parade events which underlined Weymouth's position as one of the premier sites for such events in the country."

"It was also nice to officially mark the 70th anniversary of the World War II Atlantic convoys."

Weymouth and Portland events manager Steve Davies said: "This was Weymouth and Portland's biggest military event of the year and one of the UK's biggest in its own right."

"We had big crowds and they loved the excitement of the beach assault, the historic military vehicles and the marching bands while the nostalgic parade of more than 2,000 veterans brought a tear to many an eye. Weymouth and Portland did Armed Forces Day proud."

Lunch club donate £250 to Shelterbox

DISASTER relief charity Shelterbox has been presented with £250 by Weymouth's Southill Lunch Club, which meets once a month in the lounge at the Emmanuel Church.

The club charges its members £4 for a hot lunch and the profits are divided between the church and a chosen charity, which for 2012 was Shelterbox.

Melcombe Regis Rotary Club member, and local Shelterbox spokesman Ian Brooke, said: "The request to go to the lunch club to receive this cheque for £250 came out of the blue but it just goes to show that Shelterbox is becoming well known as a charity which delivers shelter, warmth and dignity to those who have lost everything in a natural or man-made disaster."

The Southill Lunch Club meets on the first Wednesday of the month and is open to anyone living in the local area.

WOW sponsored sing

WOW Youth Musical Theatre is holding a "WOWaTHON" at the WOW studio in Park Street, Weymouth, as a major fundraising event for 2013.

The Sunday, June 30th event will see members of the talented group of young performers attempting a non-stop six-hour sponsored sing where soloists and groups will showcase their favourite songs from the shows or the charts.

WOW fundraising committee chairman Kevin Butcher said: "It promises to be a fantastic event where new talent and experience will be combined to provide a day of unrivalled musical entertainment. The doors open at 12 noon and refreshments will be available throughout the day."

"It is a few years since we have run this event but it is a great format, particularly for the new members to showcase their talent and to raise money for WOW at the same time. Just think: X Factor, the Voice and BGT all rolled into one!"

Anyone who would like to be a sponsor, perform or join in should phone 01305 835541.

Let's dance!

BALLROOM, Latin and sequence dancing took to the floor when a new evening event was held at Upwey and Broadway Memorial Hall in Weymouth.

Saturday Night Dance has just been launched by instructor Glenn Bayliss who specialises in the three forms of dance.

He said: "Our first night was quite promising and we now plan to meet fortnightly at the hall on a Saturday night."

"The way it works is that students are taught basic or improvers steps during the week before meeting on a Saturday night to put what they have learnt into practice."

"We tend to run for about three hours until 10.30pm which is plenty for the type of instruction we offer."

Glenn, who partners Angie Golding, said: "With sequence dancing you have what are called leaders who start the dance off and everyone follows them or the person in front of them."

"Ballroom embraces the waltz, quickstep, foxtrot and tango which are practised individually as is Latin which has rumba, cha cha, jive and samba.

"We hope that after six weeks of tuition people are finding their feet and able to move confidently around the floor."

Sophie's award-winning canvas on display at college

A HUGE triptych canvas won student Sophie Fretwell a "Use of Media" prize when her BTEC National Diploma Art and Design group held a "finals" show at Weymouth College.

Her canvas, which was hung in the college entrance lobby, had a wax content which will see her picture change over time as it runs, drops off or discolours.

Art and Design lecturer Will Brown said: "Sophie has gained Distinction grades throughout the Extended Diploma in Art and Design this year."

"The final major project was an accumulation of all the skills and knowledge that she had developed throughout the BTEC Diploma."

"Her final large scale portrait painting was a challenge to her natural painting ability and through studying artists such as Jenny Saville, looking specifically at qualities to give a range of skin tones, and painting as a physical medium."

"It is a very successful conclusion to the year and I wish all the very best for her studying Illustration at Falmouth University."

Arsonists set fire to mattress on footpath

QUICK-acting firefighters managed to protect nearby buildings after arsonists set fire to a mattress in Weymouth.

Detectives say the "malicious" fire happened at about 3.20pm on Monday, June 10th, outside the Horizon Family Centre belonging to Dorset County Council on Cromwell Road, Westham.

The mattress was set on fire on a footpath and the blaze then spread to some nearby wooden fence panels.

PC Neil Fitch of Weymouth Police said that fortunately Dorset Fire and Rescue Service arrived on the scene quickly and prevented the fire causing further damage.

He added: "This thoughtless act has damaged two metres of fencing, but this could have been a lot worse."

"It is lucky that the fire service managed to get to the scene in good time and extinguish the blaze before it spread to buildings nearby."

"Those responsible have shown complete disregard for property and the welfare of anyone who could have been walking in the area and we are fortunate nobody was injured."

"I am appealing for anyone who witnessed this incident or recalls any suspicious activity in the area at the time to contact Dorset Police."

"Anyone with any information about those responsible should report this to us as soon as possible."

Witnesses and anyone with information should call Dorset Police in confidence on 101 quoting incident number 10:327 or call the free and anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 111.

Celebrating 130 years of community history

RESIDENTS celebrated 130 years of Westham's history with a fete in Weymouth.

The event was held in the grounds of Conifers Primary School and included stalls, a history exhibition, face painting, jewel making, fossil painting, a beer tent and even a steam wagon.

Organiser Chris Edwards said: "Westham was officially formed in 1882, but we couldn't celebrate 130 years last year because of the Olympics.

"So we decided to hold it this year and there was a tremendous response from the community and from organisations such as Synergy and Weymouth Police.

"Our history exhibition proved very popular with some amazing photographs and old adverts as well as plans of how sites used to look many years ago."

Among those enjoying the sunshine was Weymouth and Portland Mayor Ray Banham, Mayoress Pam Nixon and Weymouth Carnival Queen Elysia Munday.

Mr Banham said: "I was really pleased to attend these celebrations because I have spent most of my life living in Westham and I have even represented the area twice on the council.

"The fete was lovely and I think Westham is a tidy, clean, happy community all knitted together and working together. It has come a long way in 130 years."

All proceeds from the event will go to Westham Community Group for future community projects.

■ MORE than 30 gleaming examples of passenger history lined up when the seventh Weymouth Vintage Bus Running Day was held at Lodmoor.

Entries came from as far afield as the Midlands, Cheltenham and Gloucester and ranged in age from a 1950 single decker Bristol to modern local buses being used as control points for the event.

Organiser Robin Woodcock said: "Conditions weren't perfect but that's a typical British summer for you. We still had fun.

"We also had a number of trade stands and the RSPB were with us to offer children's activities."

He added that the event would take a break from Weymouth in 2014 when it would move to Torquay, returning to Weymouth in 2015.

Robin said: "From then on we will be holding the event in Weymouth on alternate years with Torquay."

Cadets are flying high after engineering competition

THE Weymouth 1606 Air Cadet Squadron team that took part in the BMFA Heavy Lift Challenge

WEYMOUTH 1606 Air Cadet Squadron produced a highly creditable performance when it finished 11th out of 18 competitors in the BMFA Heavy Lift Challenge in York.

The Heavy Lift and Electric Lift Challenges is a competition requiring students to design, build and fly load-carrying model aircraft, piloted by radio control.

Judging was by a panel of professional engineers.

Weymouth 1606 squadron obtained funding from Dorset Community Foundation, which funded the build project, and obtained help from aircraft designers Don Billingham and David Cross.

The competition proved very tense because weather conditions meant cadets were not able to test their aircraft before it went to the competition.

Nerves were further shredded when their aircraft engineer couldn't attend the event after being rushed to hospital, so everyone was delighted when their aircraft flew perfectly in the first round.

Squadron Adjutant Karlene Roper said: "They were incredible, absolutely brilliant."

"The competition was a massive boost for the squadron cadets, competing and beating some of the top universities' engineer entrants, and the cadets had such a great time."

"They intend to build another aircraft for the 2014 competition."

"The squadron would like to thank Don Billingham and Dorset Community Foundation for their support."

Weymouth Squadron runs every Monday and Friday 7pm-9.30pm.

Police crack down on motorists ignoring pedestrian only signs

POLICE are trying to put the brakes on scores of offending drivers who are ignoring a Weymouth town centre sign that part of St Thomas Street is a pedestrian area only.

The signs just before vehicles reach Tesco alert drivers that the area of St Thomas Street from Tesco to the Crown Hotel is a restricted area for motorists and those who don't comply risk prosecution.

Only taxis, buses, vehicles loading and unloading and disabled motorists are permitted to use the road.

PC Rich Shirley of Weymouth and Portland Safer Neighbourhood team said "It is clearly signposted and motorists not falling into the one of the above categories who fail to obey the local traffic orders could find themselves liable to a fine or prosecution.

"The Melcombe Regis safer neighbourhood team have identified that this is an issue of concern within the local community and we would like to encourage motorists to heed the law or risk paying the price."

His message was endorsed by Inspector Les Fry who urged drivers to pay attention to the signs or face fixed penalty fines.

Weymouth Matters

A personal View by HARRY WALTON

Sharpen up your driving skills and look out for sign

I HAVE been spared a night in the cells provided I warn you all to sharpen up your driving skills and pay much more attention to a road sign in Weymouth.

The sign alerts motorists coming up past the side of the multi-storey car park towards Tesco that they are not allowed to continue on into St Thomas Street unless they are a disabled driver, a taxi, a bus or they are unloading or loading there because it is a pedestrian area.

Apparently so many ordinary motorists have missed the signs or ignored them that police are poised to reinforce the message with a few stern words and perhaps even fixed penalty tickets.

God knows how many times I've driven down that section of St Thomas Street between Tesco and Town Bridge without the prohibition sign registering with me, so the other day I went down and specifically looked for it.

The signs, if not strikingly displayed, are still plainly there for all to see, but I saw nearly a dozen cars flout the ban in less than ten minutes, so be warned. Police patience is at an end.

The real price of parking

MOST drivers and businesses I know are still in shock at being told the council wants to sharply reduce the cost of parking in Weymouth and Portland.

You may remember a time when the price of parking in the resort didn't provoke sharp intakes of breath but, in case you've forgotten, it existed for drivers around the same time as a man used to walk in front of their vehicle with a red flag to let people know such dangerous contraptions were coming.

Since then the cost of parking said contraption in a council car park for a few hours has risen so much that for years worried businesses have cited it as one of the main threats to the town's crucial tourism industry.

Now there are sweeping council proposals out there to slash parking charges during the day with free overnight parking from 6pm-9am all year round.

And the largesse doesn't stop there.

Public pleas to be able to pay on leaving a car park instead of when they arrive also appear to be being heeded together with a raft of other measures from allegedly better permits to allowing taxis to wait in car parks between jobs.

All the council needs to do now is make sure that drivers will actually be able to get into car parks without being baulked by increasing numbers of ponies taking advantage of their new-found freedom to graze civic flower beds.

The animals actually belong to the authority....which only found out the animals were missing when they came to close the stable door only to find the horses had bolted!

This fiction may well parallel the reality of proposals to cut parking charges, not because the measure is worthless but because it was so clearly needed and has been for some time.

I think it will be a success if such charges are maintained for a reasonable period, but the impact it could have made a few years ago would have been so much greater.

Businesses are bound to welcome the change, but this car rot now has increasing shopping competition from Dorchester which wasn't there not so long ago.

Now cheaper parking may not be enough to entice visitors back within range of Weymouth's tills because tourists have long memories and recent years, to say the least, have not exactly been kind them.

Perhaps the single most important question which remains to be answered is this.

Is the lure of shopping and entertainment in Weymouth powerful enough to convince drivers that taking advantage of the cheaper parking is worthwhile?

I think it's a start but there is an awful long way to go with other critically important issues such as the Pavilion and the Business Improvement District before Weymouth can say it has turned the corner.

Happy Fathers' Day?

FATHER'S Day went as well as could be expected.

I celebrated alone until mid-morning because wife, son and daughter were all still in bed long after I got up and left the house on a job.

They were still in bed when I got back, but things soon picked up as best wishes were offered and a cup of tea was made for me.

Then we collected my father and everyone went out to the car to join a stream of vehicles, all containing fathers who had been dragged off golf courses, out of garden deckchairs and pubs so they could be forced to have "a good time, relax and do what you want" on Father's Day.

I couldn't spot a single smile among any of them, just mutterings about "missing the match" or similar as they sat sipping cafe tea surrounded by forced gaiety and comments such as: "We're spoiling you today, aren't we?!"

When all the spoiling was over, I took my shoes off and collapsed in an armchair.

This Father's Day stuff is tough going, you know.

Walk on the wild side

■ THRIFT, sea campion and rock samphire were scouted for when Dorset Wildlife Trust held a wildflowers event at the Chesil Beach Centre.

The walk and workshop was led by Bryan Edwards who said: "It was a very good time of year to see wild flowers."

"We had more than 30 people turn up which is very good for an event of this type."

"We went on to Chesil Beach and over to the harbour side of Portland Beach Road which is particularly rich in wild flowers."

Volunteers needed for new community credits scheme

THE Volunteer Centre Dorset is seeking volunteers within the Bridport, Weymouth, Portland and Dorchester areas to help with their latest, exciting new project - The Community Credits Scheme.

Supported by Dorset County Council, Dorset Community Foundation and the Health Social Care Volunteering Fund, the Community Credits Scheme has been set-up to galvanise South Dorset's community, by enabling active mentors to support people with learning disabilities.

Community Credits grant free, beneficial access to gyms, cinemas, swimming pools, community centres and a host of other local venues, both academic and leisure focused.

In return for volunteering your time the Volunteer Centre will offer Community Credits for volunteers to spend on select leisure activities in Dorset.

Local businesses are supporting the centre by providing free taster sessions. These businesses include The Osprey Quay, Bridport and Weymouth leisure centres, Dorset's First Credit Union, Bridport Golf Club and the Dorchester Plaza Cinema.

The Volunteer Centre is actively seeking individuals that can offer to be mentors for adults with learning disabilities.

To find out more about the community credits scheme and how you could help, go along to the Volunteer Centre based at the Coach House, Acland Road, Dorchester, DT1 1EF.

If you are interested and can offer your valuable time, then contact Siobhan Davis on 01305 269214 or 07918 639014.

Add your memories to history project

A PROJECT that is investigating how our leisure time has changed since 1945 is seeking local people who would be interested in adding their stories to this new archive to be housed at Dorset History Centre for future generations to study.

Joe Stevens, project leader, said: "When you look at old black and white photos or films it can look like a completely different age, but what we are hearing is that life today is not that different from times past."

He added: "We are not just looking for people's memories and are hoping to capture a range of stories from 1945, right up to the present day."

To this effect the project has already enabled inter-generational sharing, with young and old volunteers joining together in a range of activities. With older volunteers capturing young people's memories at Thomas Hardy school.

Volunteers are now out in the community capturing local people's leisure time memories. With volunteers working in Bridport, Dorchester, Weymouth and Portland, and Sherborne.

If you are interested in your story being added to this archive, or you would like to find out more about this project, get in touch with Joe Stevens on 07784 874112, email joe@freetimeourstories.org.uk. or visit freetimeourstories.org.uk.

This Free Time community oral history project has been initiated by arts and educational charity digital:works and funded by the Heritage Lottery Fund.

It sees a range of organisations join together, including Thomas Hardy school, AgeUK, POPP, U3A, Dorset History Centre and Dorset County Museum to create a new archive of what we got up to in our everyday leisure-time.

Elements of our research will go into an exhibition at Dorset County Museum in March 2014.

Wildlife trust goes door-to-door in bid to increase support

DORSET Wildlife Trust is to embark on a door-to-door collection to boost its income.

The trust says it needs more work to help counteract the significant decline in wildlife, reported in the May State of Nature report.

And although the organisation is one of the biggest charities in the county it still needs additional funding for its work.

The trust and other conservation organisations fear that the protection of the environment has become less of a priority at time when many traditional funding sources for charities have been reduced or withdrawn.

During the next few months, specially trained fundraisers, wearing clothing bearing the distinctive Dorset Wildlife Trust logo and carrying identification badges, will be calling house-to-house.

The fundraisers have been trained by the specialist organisation - Wesser, who has raised millions of pounds for charities across Europe.

They will not be collecting cash or cheques; instead, they will be asking people to become members of Dorset Wildlife Trust with regular, affordable direct debit donations.

Anyone wishing to do so just needs to complete a simple form, which can be done on the doorstep.

Director of Fundraising and Marketing for DTW, Alastair Cook said: "We depend heavily on the support of our members, as they provide our only regular source of income. We receive no Government funding for carrying out our conservation work and protecting some of the most beautiful parts of Dorset."

"By working with Wesser we are able to tell people about our charitable work, as well as raising funds in the most cost-effective and secure way possible, through regular donations."

"This is a local campaign, which directly supports our conservation work in Dorset. Long term support makes all the difference in planning for the future, helping Dorset Wildlife Trust to continue its valuable work in ensuring the county's fabulous wildlife has a secure future and can be enjoyed by everyone."

The Christian Column

AS I SEE IT ... by Geoff Treleven

Filling the spaces

LISTENING to people talk, I have observed how often we avoid pauses by interspersing gaps in the conversation with various sayings. Such comments as: "OK?" or "It is" or "Do you see?" But we also endeavour to fill other spaces in our lives with various activities that keep us busy.

What we often forget is that God has created us with what is sometimes called a "God Space" in our lives. We may try all kinds of substitute things to satisfy some of our deepest longings, but unless God continually occupies His rightful place in our lives we shall never be completely satisfied, no matter what.

When Solomon became the King of Israel, succeeding his father David, he realised his own inadequacy and sought God's help (1Kings 3:5-9). God blessed him with great wisdom and wealth. His knowledge became extensive and was much sought after.

But although Solomon started so well, he began to fill his life with activities God had forbidden. These turned his heart away from God with disastrous consequences. Perhaps there are lessons there for us all.

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him" (Romans 15:13)

'Windy' drivers make it to Romania

A MAGNIFICENT motor adventure which left Weymouth two weeks ago made it safely...in to Dracula country!

The Windy 500, which hopes to raise more than £10,000 for children's charity Julia's House, saw more than a dozen teams leave Weymouth on an incredible journey, which will see them visit 23 countries in 23 days.

Organiser Steve Blackmore chatted with the View when they reached Brasov in Romania, deep in the heart of the mountains where the legendary Dracula myth makes it a tourist hotspot.

Steve said: "We are close to the top of the Transfagarasan Highway, which we shall hopefully be driving and camping on soon. It's a spectacular bit of road and should have some snow cover.

"Over the last week we have visited Amsterdam in Holland, Goslar in Germany, Prague in the Czech Republic, Krakow in Poland, Poprad in Slovakia and Debrecen in Hungary.

"The scenery in the Czech Republic, Poland and Slovakia has been stunning. We have visited Auschwitz, ice caves in Slovakia and found thermal pools in Hungary.

"Team Newlywed had an alternator problem in Germany but caught up again after 24 hours, but Team 12 have had to send their van home due to a breakdown but are now with us on Team Jezebel.

"Team Trauma got the ambulance all the way to Debrecen in one go but then suffered a problem with the power steering. They are now in Romania after getting it sorted.

"We are now sheltering in the van during a thunder storm before nipping out to eat soon! All is going well, there is a great team atmosphere and we are all enjoying it immensely."

The Windy 500, which was launched last year by Weymouth response officer PC Steve Blackmore.

All vehicles used had to cost £500 or less.

Hidden history

■ AN exhibition detailing the history of African American soldiers in Dorset has been held at Weymouth Library.

The event, which followed on from the Dorset's Hidden Histories project, included a workshop run by Louisa Adjoa Parker.

She said: "The exhibition basically explored the African American GI soldiers who came to Dorset ahead of the D-Day landings in 1944.

"It showed how friendships and relationships were built with local people and explored their social history.

"It is an aspect of the Second World War which has not seen the contribution they made widely acknowledged.

"The workshop let people view the exhibition and interact with it while talking about the importance of recording memories.

ADVERTISERS ANNOUNCEMENT

Natural Burial Ground voted runner up

HIGHER Ground Meadow near Crewkerne has been named overall runner up in the People's Awards for the Best Natural Burial Ground in the UK.

After being named the best in the south west last month, three judges named Higher Ground Meadow a very close second to a site at East Meon in Hampshire.

The certificate was presented to owner Jo Vassie by Paul Atterbury, the antiques expert who had opened the burial ground in 2009. He said: 'Having watched the development of Higher Ground Meadow since the opening day, I am really pleased about the award. Totally justified and something special for Jo and her team, who have done so much to bring natural burial to West Dorset.'

Mrs Vassie said: 'My mother would have been so thrilled at Higher Meadow achieving second place, she died on April 21st this year aged 99, just before we found out we had been short listed and was the 105th person to be buried here. It is she who taught me to be fussy about things and the importance of detail. So many people are still unaware of their choices when it comes to a funeral and don't want to think ahead. Tracey Warren at Stoodley's is probably one of the best in the country at explaining options.'

Organisers of the awards, the Natural Death Centre Charity scrutinised the written feedback forms presented to families which have used the services of a natural burial ground, reading the comments of over a thousand members of the public. Unlike other awards which grade the facilities available on sites, or cover environmental issues, the People's Awards are all about the personal service received when someone arranges a burial at a natural site and the impact the manager or owner had on the bereaved families.

One of the judges, Dr Hannah Rumble from the University of Bath said: 'I liked the personal touches such as Jo Vassie wearing a colourful blouse at the behest of mourners and lining the burial plots with fresh pine cuttings etc; it demonstrates that custom is clearly valued, as is making the transaction memorable for mourner.'

Burials at Higher Ground Meadow cost between £495 and £695, including the use of Higher Ground Barn for a ceremony and the planting of a native tree.

A state of the art call bell system is fitted in all residents' bedrooms and all public bathrooms and lounges. We have an elevator to all floors.

We welcome all enquiries and visits concerning residential care whether long term, respite or day care. Should you wish to visit, we would be happy to show you around, meet our staff and residents and most importantly give you a copy of our menu, which takes

Our objective is to provide the very best person-centred care. Our staffs are dedicated to this objective. In doing so, our philosophy is that this is in every sense a residents home with the freedom to live as they wish but with the assurance of help always being at hand if necessary.

We appreciate that the move to residential care is a big decision and so we offer flexibility in the time taken for residents to get to know us. We encourage initial trial periods of residency and are happy for informal visits for various lengths of time and to join us for a meal.

It's a knock-out day of fundraising

By Harry Walton
hds Walton@yahoo.co.uk

A SPECIAL "It's a Knock-out" day has been held in Weymouth to help raise money for a charity. Diverse Abilities Plus supports children and adults with disabilities, also supporting their families throughout their lives.

The event at Redland Community Sports Hub, sponsored by Basepoint Centres Weymouth and Wessex FM, involved 13 teams from local companies.

They tackled everything from games involving 10ft giant costumes to trying to negotiate a huge inflatable slippery slope, an enormous washing machine full of foam and a cannon full of tennis balls.

Organiser Sharon Wells said: "DAP is very important because it is the only charity in Dorset providing a lifetime of support for more than 500 families."

"It is the first time that we have done an It's a Knock-out challenge and the response has been amazing."

"It was a lot of fun and everyone had a great time for a good cause."

Salsa Cascara from Dorchester were the winners of the event.

NUBANOUR HEAD TO BRIDPORT ARTS CENTRE

Egyptian collective bring their traditional songs to Dorset

FOLLOWING a stunning debut at WOMAD last year, Nuba Nour promise an enchanting evening of music from the banks of the river Nile.

Nubia was an ancient African kingdom in the Nile valley, situated between present-day southern Egypt and northern Sudan. Sometimes referred to as Kush or Aithiopia, it is thought to have been one of the earliest civilisations in the region, occupying an important trade route through North Africa, sub-Saharan Africa and the Mediterranean.

NubaNour are a Cairo-based collective of Nubian singers and master frame drummers, performing traditional music and dance from antiquity, alongside contemporary acoustic songs reflecting the ongoing struggles of life in exile after the loss of their Aswan homelands during the construction of the High Dam in the 1960s.

The Aswan High Dam was a symbol of Egyptian nationalistic pride following the 1952 Revolution, promising to usher a new era of prosperity through industrialisation. Financed by the USSR and hailed, at the time, as a triumph of water management and the might of hydroelectricity, the project resulted in the creation of Lake Nasser, one of the world's largest man-made reservoirs.

It was the people of Nubia however who were to pay a high price for the benefits the Dam bought to the wider Egyptian population, and some fifty years after their ancestral lands were drowned under the waters of Lake Nasser, the environmental and social impacts of the High Dam are still felt amongst the estimated 120,000 Nubian people who were subsequently forced to migrate elsewhere in Egypt.

Original formed in Cairo in 1962, NubaNour's repertoire comprises both the secular and the sacred. The band's evocative call and response chants comprise agricultural and work songs which serve to remind the Nubians of their farming origins; sacred songs feature verses praising both Christian and Islamic saints, reflecting the influence and dominance of different religions and spiritual practices in Nubia throughout history while later day poetic songs are meditations about the loss and longing endured by the Nubian people and an expression of hope for the growing movement calling for a return to a new homeland. "Dance also plays a central role in the band's performances with a unique dance called Fray representing the movement of Balti fish swimming through the waves of the Nile."

NubaNour perform at Bridport Art Centre on Wednesday, July 3rd at 8pm.

Tickets are available from Bridport Arts Centre's box office (01308 424204) or online from www.bridport-arts.com £16 adult/£15 members and £7 concessions.

'Big Mix' Open Air Youth Music Festival By The Sea

Papa Le Gal and The RPMs will headline the day-long event

B SHARP are pleased to announce that the amazing Papa Le Gal and The RPMs are headlining at the Big Mix Festival by the sea, which takes place on Saturday, July 6th in Theatre Square, Lyme Regis.

'Big Mix' is a festival on your doorstep - an exceptional day out for young people, all the family and friends. This festival promises to be something quite unique in Lyme Regis and organisers are predicting a wonderful day. Fran Williams, B Sharp director said "It's going to be great day out not just for young people, although they should all be sure to come along - this is a music festival right on your doorstep, set in the most stunning location on our outdoor stage next to The Marine Theatre. We have live music all day long until dark. There is a BBQ with award winning chef Ian Simpson from the White House Hotel in Charmouth, the Aroma pop up cafe will be on site, and The Marine Theatre Bar is going to be open all day for over 18's. There are mackerel fishing boat trips for those who want to take a break and hammocks and deckchairs for those who want to lounge... there will be something for everyone, just come along and see for your self. Take a day off from everyday life, come along and join in some community fun and support young peoples music."

Pete Wild, one of B Sharp's music leaders and Big Mix organisers said, "The full line up is now on the website. The July 6th event runs from 1pm and finishes at 11pm and we even have DJ's until 1am in the Marine Theatre bar. Check it out on www.bsharp.uk.com. The main stage kicks off with 2 hours of young singers and players from around the area until more bands take to the stage well into the evening. We are especially pleased to announce that the headline acts are to be The RPMs and Papa Le Gal. Both these bands have strong links to B Sharp and are natural musicians, destined to go far.

"The RPMs come hot from their set at this year's Glastonbury Festival while the long awaited reunion of groove-inspired Papa Le Gal is a treat for your ears and your feet - get ready to dance!"

Fran said "There are a range of music acts from across the South West and our B Sharp young musicians will be performing some of the songs they have composed at their regular Tuesday evening sessions at the Hub over the last few months. We are expecting Music and entertainment industries to come along looking for music acts for their own events. This festival will generate valuable exposure for young, local performers at the same time as providing the public with some exceptional entertainment.

ENERGISE

Stay fit and healthy in West Dorset

Over a twelve week period Energise will track the progress of Rob's personal fitness training at Bridport Leisure Centre.

Week Three

During Rob's third week, we introduced interval training into his programme. Interval training is a workout which consists of alternate periods of high intensity exercise, followed by a periods of lower intensity exercise. This helps to increase fitness, raise metabolism and burn more body fat compared to standard continuous exercise such as jogging. Our aim was to make Rob work as hard as he could in each session to maximise his fat burning potential. To do this, Rob mainly focused on using the cross trainer as it offers a full body workout and it is also low impact on his joints.

An example of Rob's workout:

10 minute warm up
20 minutes of 1 minute at high intensity followed by 1 minute at a lower intensity
10 minute cool down

A few of the benefits of interval training are:

- Less time consuming as workouts are condensed
- Boosts the metabolic rate which burns more fat during and up to 24 hours after training
- Promotes fat loss, as opposed to steady cardiovascular training which can also result in muscle loss
- No equipment necessary and can be performed either indoors or outside

Tip of the Week

Interval training can be carried out from the comfort of your own living room by alternating between 1 minute of intense star jumps and 1 minute of marching. Better still, by joining Bridport Leisure Centre, a fully qualified trainer can design and tailor an interval programme especially for your needs.

Saturday Night Dance in Weymouth

BALLROOM, Latin and sequence dancing took to the floor when a new evening event was held at Upwey and Broadway Memorial Hall in Weymouth.

Saturday Night Dance has just been launched by instructor Glenn Bayliss who specialises in the three forms of dance.

He said: "Our first night was quite promising and we now plan to meet fortnightly at the hall on a Saturday night."

"The way it works is that students are taught basic or improvers steps during the week before meeting on a Saturday night to put what they have learnt into practice."

"We tend to run for about three hours until 10.30pm which is plenty for the type of instruction we offer."

Glenn, who partners Angie Golding, said: "With sequence dancing you have what are called leaders who start the dance off and everyone follows them or the person in front of them."

"Ballroom embraces the waltz, quickstep, foxtrot and tango which are practised individually as is Latin which has rumba, cha cha, jive and samba."

"We hope that after six weeks of tuition people are finding their feet and able to move confidently around the floor."

He added that it was not all work and no play because the group has a social side and embraces all abilities.

He said: "All those coming here need is a love of dance."

Anyone who would like to join the classes or who would like more information should contact Glenn on 07505 798258 or email him on shallwedancethe@hotmail.co.uk

The stars of Miracle Theatre's 'Waiting For Godot'

Waiting For Godot

A miraculous night of outdoor theatre under the stars

TREAT yourself to miraculous night of theatre under the stars this summer!

Cornwall's Miracle Theatre return to Maumbury Rings on Saturday, July 6th to celebrate the 60th Anniversary of Samuel Beckett's Waiting for Godot by performing an open air production that promises to be both deadly serious and seriously funny.

Each year the company have thrilled and entertained audiences in Dorchester with their wonderfully inventive and comic productions. Now the Miracle magic is applied to one of the most highly regarded – and debated – plays in the English language. Beckett's timeless masterpiece Waiting for Godot explores what makes us tick with clarity, dramatic force and irresistible humour.

The play may have the reputation of being 'high-brow' but only among people who have never seen it. In fact, it is funny and moving and is performed by a stellar cast, all masters of tragedy, to give it the comic treatment that has become one of Miracle's hallmarks.

"I have a great affection for Waiting for Godot" says director Bill Scott, "not just because Samuel Beckett, who won the Nobel Prize for literature in 1969, has the universal and timeless appeal of Shakespeare, but because as a teenager I played The Boy, then at university I played Lucky and in 1985 I directed an early production of the play for Miracle."

So, join the Godot debate this summer and decide for yourself if 'Waiting for Godot' is a 'play in which nothing happens – twice!' or, actually one of 'the most profound, moving and comic plays ever written'.

Grab your friends, pack a picnic and get prepared for a night of Miracle madness – come rain or shine! Gates open, plus hot chocolate, teas and cakes, from 6.30pm. The play starts at 7.30pm on Saturday, July 6th, in Dorchester's Maumbury Rings.

Tickets are £30 family, £12 adult, £10 members, £8 concessions from Dorchester Arts 01305 266926 or Tourist Information Office 01305 267992 or online at: www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

BEAUTY OR THE BEAST

Once upon a time there were two accordionists... Paul Hutchinson and Karen Tweed

PAUL and Karen almost never discuss accordions when they meet... or accordion music... or accordion bands. Nevertheless, they have decided to write new music for two accordions and perform it together. In fact, they've been threatening a duo ever since an impromptu slot at Oxford Folk Festival a few years ago and finally they've managed it.

King of the accordion Paul Hutchinson first studied piano and church organ then at the age of 17 he took up the accordion and formed a ceilidh band. Perhaps best known these days for his work in the Folk Awards nominated duo Belshazzar's Feast, other notable collaborations include Hoover the Dog, Fruits of Paradise and The Playford Liberation Front. Whilst his ongoing project British Aisles takes him back to church. Paul continues to be an inspiring and innovative teacher and his strong belief that music shouldn't be pigeonholed is evident in his prolific and diverse compositions.

English accordion queen Karen Tweed won an All Ireland Championship title on the melodica, when she was about 17 before deciding to concentrate on the accordion. One of the leading lights on the UK and international folk scenes Karen is recognised for her inspirational teaching and groundbreaking partnerships. Noted for work with Kathryn Tickell, Ian Carr, The Poozies, Swap, 2 Duos Quartet and May Monday and as instigator of such adventurous projects as these and the 4K Plot, Circa Compania and The No1 Ladies Accordion Orchestra. Recently she's also formed a trio with Kevin Dempsey & Carolyn Robson (DRT). As a soloist she's astonishing and continues breaking accordion-esque preconceptions and boundaries; her beautiful and surprising solo CD Essentially Invisible to the Eye, produced by Bruce Molsky, is out now.

Individually brilliant, Paul and Karen together could be dangerous, hilarious or precarious, but most definitely entertaining. Expect lots of laughs and humorous banter between these two old pals too.

Tickets are available from Bridport Arts Centre's box office (01308 424204) or online from www.bridport-arts.com £10 adult/£9 members and £3 concessions.

Jammy Voo presents

Birdhouse

JAMMY Voo, an Exeter based, International touring company are bringing their wonderfully surreal comedy horror Birdhouse, to Bridport on Saturday 29 June 8pm, ahead of it's Edinburgh preview.

In the wonderfully surreal comedy horror minor characters from Hitchcock's classic film The Birds step out of the shadows as sole survivors of the bird attack that wiped out the town.

You may not remember Mrs Smith crossing the street, or Ms Schiffer and Miss Spoke lurking in the background of the café, or Miss Shire working behind the counter in the petrol station. In this performance they take refuge in the Coronet Cinema living in a permanent state of post-traumatic shock. But will they survive their own personal apocalypses?

Featuring sumptuous visuals, wild puppetry and a live bird band, the performance examines fear, disaster, the far edge of madness ... and how to keep living when doomsday seems just around the corner.

Jammy Voo trained together at the Jacques Lecoq School, Paris (2003-2005). Their previous shows 'Something Blue' and 'A Corner of the Ocean' were critically acclaimed at the Edinburgh Fringe and have toured all over the UK and abroad.

Lisa Wilcock, Marketing Manager said "Jammy Voo are an exciting theatre company who blend physical theatre, puppetry, visual creations, live music and singing. Their interpretation of one of the greatest horror films of all time will be a treat for fans of dark comedy"

"A strange mixture of high drama and black comedy, it is compelling viewing." The Public Reviews

ONE of the highlights of this year's Beaminster Festival is the Art Exhibition, in the Public Hall, sponsored by local solicitors, Kitson & Trotman. Thirty local artists and practitioners – painters, ceramicists, photographers – have come together to show what artistic talent exists in and around Beaminster.

One of the highlights is: 'Five Gold Rings', Roger Shapley's wonderfully vibrant memorial painting to the 2012 Olympic Games and Jane Horner's watercolour of 'The Square, Beaminster' which features on all the festival brochures. Other artists include painters Billie Willcocks, Brian Cocks and Stephen Yates, photographers Annie Dent, Giles Edwards and Petrina Jane Hughes and ceramists Louise Hamlin and Fenella Stride. Other artistic ports of call include: Strummer Pink where the work of popular local printmaker, Liz Somerville's latest work can be seen and Cilla and Camilla @ home where the most recent oils and watercolours of Nicola Leader can be enjoyed. The exhibitions are open for the whole of festival week and all artwork is for sale. www.beamfest.org.uk

"We want young musicians who are already playing an instrument, percussion or singing, musicians of all levels, beginners to advanced, it doesn't matter where you live or what you play.

"There are four simple steps to take. Step 1: Go online www.bsharp.uk.com and register your interest in any one of the free sessions. Step 2: Complete the music questionnaire. Step 3: Turn up to one of the free sessions."

Fran Williams B Sharp Director said: "At the end of every B Sharp project we get asked by families 'what's next?' We know there is a need for high quality creative music groups to be established in the rural areas that can provide ongoing music opportunities to develop skills and interests. Music provision is often patchy in rural areas and accessing it can be difficult. We want to see if we can set up different ensembles in different areas by overcoming some of those barriers, this project is an exciting and important opportunity to see how best to do this. This project is funded by Youth Music in association with Bournemouth, Dorset and Devon Music Hubs. John K Miles has worked on various B Sharp projects, including the high profile Coastal Voices where 200 young people sang at Poole Lighthouse and Weymouth Beach for the opening of the Olympics."

The message is loud and clear - if you are a parent or a young musician then get in touch and register your interest in these free sessions and any future opportunities at www.bsharp.uk.com or contact marienegus@bsharp.uk.com.

*in and around East Devon,
West Dorset and South Somerset*

We've got the lot...

WITH the school holidays now upon us, and the sun having made its long-awaited appearance, tourists are starting to flock to this area.

With the tough economy at present, many people are sacrificing their holidays abroad this year and choosing British resorts instead.

Tourism is the lifeblood of this particular area and already our resorts are seeing an increasing number of visitors, especially at weekends.

If you take a look at the beauty of our seaside towns and surrounding country areas, who wants to spend several hours queuing in Terminal 5 at Heathrow airport, especially as there's every likelihood you will be separated from your luggage for ever more.

A leisurely drive down the A303 or the M5, even at peak times, is much more sensible.

The triangle that makes up East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset has some of the most spectacular scenery in the British Isles with a welcome second to none.

As part of the Jurassic Coast, a World Heritage Site, we sit on equal terms with the Taj Mahal and Grand Canyon.

And we do so with every right for when it comes to heritage we are right up there with the top tourist spots in the world.

This supplement, Summer Holidays 2013, is designed to show off our area to its best ...a concise record of all the best things about spending the lazy, hazy days of summer in picturesque East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset.

This is a Jurassic Triangle - and if you get lost there will always be a friendly soul to put you back on the right track again.

Summer Holidays 2013 contains dozens of ideas of how to spend your time in our company wisely, where to eat and places to visit.

There really is something for everyone - no matter what age.

From genteel cream teas in village settings, to bracing cliff top walks, or traditional family pursuits on sun kissed beaches, Summer Holidays 2013 will point you in the right direction.

Nothe Fort

Nothe Fort Museum of Coastal Defence

Award winning visitor attraction offering low cost entry and great value come rain or shine.

BUILT by the Victorians to protect Portland Harbour, Nothe Fort is one of the best preserved forts of its kind. The advances in technology that affected the fort are explained through many displays, exhibits and audio visual facilities located on the ramparts, gun decks and maze of underground passageways. You may even encounter our resident Ghost, the infamous whistling gunner should your nerve hold out.

Enjoy the stunning and far reaching views of the Jurassic Coast from the picnic areas on the Ramparts. These will provide one of the best vantage points on the south coast.

Alpha Alpacas

ALPHA Alpacas just south of Melplash, on the A3066, have decided to open their gates to the public after many years of people stopping to peer over the gates at the alpacas. The herd is one of the top herds in the UK. The Alpaca Experience is being run in conjunction with the Pymore Inn who are providing the cream teas and acting as the booking agents. The Experience will allow visitors to learn more about these fascinating creatures, who originate from high up in the Andes. They are bred for their very fine fibre, which is used to produce both knitwear and worsted cloth. Alpacas have been in the UK since Victorian times, but it is only in the last 15 years that they have been farmed commercially – there are now more alpacas in the UK than goats! Alpacas come in all colours from white through to black and during the Experience visitors will have the opportunity to learn more about alpacas and their fibre, followed by a leisurely walk around the 15 acre farm to see the 60+ alpacas on the site including Jack, who recently was crowned Supreme Champion at the British Alpaca Society National Show and other award winning alpacas. There are 23 cria (babies) due to be born over the coming weeks so some visitors may witness 'the miracle of birth' followed by paddocks of playful youngsters. Before enjoying a Dorset Cream Tea there will be the opportunity to take an alpaca for a walk. Alpaca products will also be on sale. To book – phone 01308 422625. Good footwear is advisable as the farm is a bio-secure area and visitors will enter across a disinfectant mat. Parking available on site.

Dorset County Museum

THIS summer there's so much going on at Dorset County Museum. Our new family exhibition, ANIMATE!, sponsored by Pardoes Solicitors, opens on 13 July and will reveal the wonderful world of film animation over the last two centuries. Over 120 artefacts will be on display from the Bill Douglas Centre for the History of Cinema and Popular Culture at Exeter University. There will also be objects from the British Film Institute National Archive, the Ray Harryhausen Foundation and from independent local animators. The artefacts range from Victorian flick books, shadow theatres and puppets to posters, catalogues, original Disney film cells and merchandising toys.

Children can make their own animated films and participate in workshops to learn how it's done. A series of talks will provide a fascinating insight behind the scenes of famous animated films. Contact the Museum on 01305 756827 to book tickets and to find out more about these exciting family events.

During the school holidays there are Dino Club sessions on 6, 13 and 20 August especially for the under 7s. Our regular family activities also run throughout the holidays on Wednesday mornings and are always popular. Three of the sessions will take up the animation theme of the summer exhibition. All Dino Club and Family activities in 2013 are generously sponsored by Battens Solicitors and are FREE!

East Devon Riding Academy

EAST Devon Riding Academy offers an unrivalled approach to learning to ride, where lessons are about far more than just following the bum in front! We strive to provide safe and enjoyable lessons, with an emphasis on building harmonious relationships with the horses & ponies.

We believe that the art of horse riding requires more than a 'pull and kick' approach, so we aim to teach riders to develop their riding skills neatly and with feel. This allows riders to communicate more effectively with the horses & ponies, bringing greater achievement, safety and confidence. Specialising in individual lessons or very small groups of siblings, family or friends. Our horses & ponies are much loved and valued members of our team. They have quality, well fitted tack and are looked after to a high standard. East Devon Riding Academy is also an approved Pony Club Centre, where members can work towards achievement badges and certificates.

Win a place on a Pony Morning worth £32

EAST Devon Riding Academy offer pony mornings for children throughout the school summer holidays. All levels of experience welcome as groups split according to age and ability if required.

The next Pony Morning is Wednesday 31st July

What is a Pony Morning?

A pony morning usually runs from 10am to 1pm. Children come to the Riding Academy to learn about riding and different aspects of looking after and handling the ponies.

Children will have a riding lesson and the remaining time will be spent doing hands on activities and games to learn about stable management and riding theory in a small group. There are a limited number of places on each morning to ensure quality of tuition and sufficient attention for each participant.

Our pony mornings are fully supervised and educational; the children are being taught as they take part.

What types of activities are there on a Pony Morning?

The mornings give children hands on experience of ponies, where they get the opportunity to ride and take part in activities such as:

- Grooming the ponies, picking out their feet and learning about the different brushes.
- Catching and leading the ponies in from the fields.
- Tacking up and learning about different tack and equipment.

- Bathing the ponies (when its warm enough!) and learning to plait their manes and tails.
- Feeding, watering and mucking out.
- Riding a dressage test, around obstacle courses and practicing handy pony skills.
- Games, competitions and treasure hunts.

Parents do not need to stay with their child during the pony morning. As long as your child is happy to be left with us then they can take part.

Pony mornings make an ideal gift. We have welcomed many children for a holiday treat or if mum and dad just want a few hours peace and quiet!

The cost is £32 per child and includes hat hire, if required. Each child goes home with a rosette and workbook.

Pony mornings are a great way to get children exercising in the fresh air with other like minded children. We have seen many friendships develop at our pony mornings.

All levels of experience are welcome as groups are split if required.

Riding clothes are not needed, we provide hats and we are happy to advise you of the most suitable clothing.

For information or to book a place contact Natalie on 01297 553280 or 07771 903220

To enter the competition please send a postcard with your name, address, telephone number and email address on to Pony Morning Competition, DD&S Series of Newspapers Ltd, Unit 3, St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset, DT7 3DB

A traditional hamlet pub and free house that offers a range of cask ales, draught lagers and ciders listed in the Good Beer Guide, and a range of New world wines supported with a classic food menu. The menu includes some established home made pub favourites such as Steak & Ale pie, as well

All the fresh meat and fish is sourced from local suppliers.

Sunday lunches are also offered with a choice of at least two roast meats and a selection of other dishes for you to choose from.

At The Pymore as well as the main bar there is a dining room, which is ideal for a family get together, dinner party, a social lunchtime, or night out with friends.

The Pymore has plenty of car parking spaces, and has a great lawned, enclosed walled garden, so enjoy a refreshing drink and watch the sun go down.

Our next planned event is on Sunday 28th July when we shall be holding a family garden party and fete, a fun afternoon for all, finishing in the evening with a disco, with hot food available too.

The Pymore is the ideal meeting point before you go off on your Alpha Alpaca Experience, which is a splendid afternoon on the farm and enjoy meeting these friendly animals and enjoy a tasty Dorset cream tea.

The Harbour Inn

Come and experience the relaxing newly refurbished Harbour Inn at Axmouth

OWNERS, Gary and Toni Valentine recently unveiled their new vision for the village pub, with a complete redesign, enhancing the 12th century traditional building, a brand new menu and something for everyone.

With the chance to relax in the sunshine in the patio and beer garden, snuggle with cake and coffee in the lounge with an open fire or enjoy a sit down meal from the contemporary menu; everyone can be safe in the knowledge that they can enjoy their visit.

From traditional Sunday lunches to a full English breakfast kick-starting your day; The Harbour Inn boasts a range of delicious treats. There is lots to choose from with the menu divided into themes from a New York 'on the streets' theme inspired by a recent trip to the city, to a 'From the sea' and 'From the Land' section and 'two for one' deals to little nibbles, garden treats and sharing boards.

Inspired by their recent trip to the Big Apple; its now possible to dine out on some of the New York specials that have earned a worldwide reputation, including the classic New York chilli dog, New York sliders, pulled pork shoulder and the Juicy Lucy burger (price range £7.50 to £11.)

For those looking for a snack during the day (12 noon to 6 pm) a sandwich in a bag (tuna bagel cheese melt, ham, cream cheese and tomato and the classic BLT) can be purchased for £4.

Naughty treats' are also playing a big role, with a brand new sweets menu, packed full of retro desserts such as chocolate brownie with all the trimmings, complete with chocolate milkshake which comes in a miniature glass milk bottle with a straw; toffee apple Eton mess and peach melba knickerbocker glory.

The pub's new 'Breakfast Club' also hopes to welcome people to enjoy a full English breakfast, seven days a week, from 9am until 11.30am.

The cosy thatched pub on Church Street is known for its traditional feel, black beams and period features and has now been enhanced with new heritage colour schemes, a light, fresh and airy feel and a state of the art kitchen.

Whilst areas have been stripped out, panelled and carpeted, the traditional features such as the open fires and original beams remain in tact, giving the pub a much-needed rejuvenation and a modern twist.

The bar has been completely relocated, doubling the size of the room as you enter, and a relaxed style has been implemented with a mixture of new bespoke table and chairs for dining to comfortable zones for visitors who just want a coffee and a biscuit.

Adding to the different zones in the pub, a new 'Captains Room' is available to hire and has been created for parties, meetings and functions, with a giant specially created table set to seat twenty people; whilst you can be sure that if you're celebrating a birthday, a free bottle of bubbly will be on the table.

Quirky props such as golden clad mirrors, paddles round every corner reflecting the pub's new logo and a typewriter to hold on to the menus are also set to bring the pub alive.

The couple have always had a flair for interior design and an eye for special touches, with their company, G&T Interiors influencing much of the new design for the Harbour Inn. The company is set to have a small outlet at the pub, selling one off quirky pieces and items inspired by the couple's travels during expeditions abroad.

Owner, Gary Valentine said: "Toni and I welcome all to enjoy their visit to the Harbour at Axmouth and we look forward to showing more of the community what we have to offer. "We have worked hard to ensure the vision can keep every bit of the pub's character and enhance its 12th century features, whilst giving it a contemporary new look.

"We have tried to make sure that there is something for everyone, from our Captains Room for parties and meetings, to our relaxed zone and dining area and a dog friendly bar.

"We have also created our own wedding package for just £999 where we have a complete plan including a three course wedding breakfast for up to fifty people for couples who want the perfect day without spending thousands of pounds.

"We are particularly excited about our new menu which we feel has something for all kinds of customers, and are looking forward particularly to implementing our new New York inspired section in tribute to our visit there.

"Whilst being competitively priced, we are still aiming to bring a high level of quality and customer service and are excited to show off the new changes."

The Harbour at Axmouth is open from 9am until late seven days a week.

We like happy Tenants!

Symonds & Sampson offer Reasonable and Transparent fees to Tenants and Courtesy is our watchword

THERE has been some negative publicity about letting agencies and their fees from Shelter, the housing and homeless Charity recently. Whilst the reports are true for some Letting Agencies who we agree do charge extortionate up front fees to tenants it is not the whole story.

Renting is now the housing choice for millions of households and the competition for properties can be fierce. Yes we do charge upfront fees to tenants but this is to protect them and our landlords when going through the referencing process. Unfortunately it is not uncommon for some tenants to make offers on several properties at the same time. This is a risk for landlords so at Symonds & Sampson we endeavour to charge our tenants reasonable, competitive, and transparent fees which are clearly stated on our website under 'Renting Through Us'. The application fee means we can remove the property from the market whilst a tenant is referenced.

Lucy Nolan, Lettings Manager of Symonds & Sampson Bridport and Beaminster Offices says "There is a call for tougher regulation of letting agents. We would agree wholeheartedly with this and we are already voluntarily Members of the Association of Residential Letting Agents as well as being regulated by the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors. We ensure all our letting staff are qualified or trained so that they can offer straight forward professional, step by step advice to tenants wishing to rent a property through the company".

"We also endeavour to make sure that tenants and landlords expectations are as compatible as possible. It is important to us that we make every ones lives as easy as possible without compromising on our duty to either landlord or tenant. Many tenants find property visits intrusive especially if they have been used to living in their own properties. We always try to give them plenty of notice when requesting an appointment and encourage them to make it their home whilst being mindful of the Landlord's instructions. Courtesy at all times is our watchword".

Why choose us?

Because our fees are transparent!

BEAMINSTER - £325,000

JEREMY Smith, Manager of Symonds & Sampson in Beaminster is delighted to have been chosen to market a charming cottage in St. Mary Well Street which lies in the very heart of the popular Dorset town of Beaminster. Jeremy commented "whilst this property offers immense character there is little doubt that the fabulous large gardens to the rear are the true feature of this property". Viewing is absolutely imperative to appreciate these gardens which comprise lawned areas, mature trees, gravelled areas, detached studio and enjoying views towards St. Mary's church.

The cottage itself is arranged over three floors as follows:- Sitting room, kitchen. On the first floor are two bedrooms and a luxury bath/shower room. There is also a fully converted attic room which subject to the necessary planning regulations could either be converted into bedroom three.

Symonds & Sampson are quoting an asking price of £325,000 for the freehold, so why not view today.

Jeremy commented "properties in this particular street are extremely desirable, therefore why not contact either myself, Erica, Kate, Jane or Denise on 01308 863100 to arrange a viewing.

We are looking for an Editor to work within one of the UKHO's geographic production teams at Taunton to produce and maintain volumes of Sailing Directions and advise on aspects of navigation for the team's production and maintenance of paper and digital charting products.

The work entails assessing and verifying navigational information; preparing, amending and proof-reading Sailing Directions copy; producing Section IV Notices; dealing with external enquiries; liaising with Harbour Masters and other external sources of information; contributing towards the effective inclusion of navigational data into UKHO products and data bases.

Fiat 500L MPW: The new model of the 500 family

FIAT presents the first official photos of the Fiat 500L MPW (called 'Living' in the rest of Europe), the new model that will have its world preview in July on the sixth anniversary of the 500 family. A development of the icon launched in 2007, the new car is for living life to the full, a car which reaches out directly to a diverse public, attentive to new features and looking for a balance of functionality and design, to make room for their many interests and intended uses without compromising on style.

The new Fiat has all the charm of the 500, the agility of a city-car, is as compact as a mid-size car, has the comfort and contents of a C-segment station wagon or saloon and the space and the versatility of an MPV. These are the ingredients of a new conception of the car, which is not based solely on technical specifications, but also on how it is experienced in life, to create a magic combination.

The 500L MPW is therefore the perfect marriage of effective use of space and unmistakable 'made in Fiat' design. With an additional third row of seats, the new car is the most compact '5 + 2-seater' MPV in its segment: it is 435 cm long, 178 cm wide and 167 cm high. What's more, despite being 20 cm shorter than a C-segment Station Wagon, the Fiat 500L MPW ensures exceptional values in terms of comfort, space and load capacity, as demonstrated by a volume of 638 litres.

The new model therefore assumes its position as the first car for the whole family which reaches out to all consumers, able to win over both men, thanks to its characteristics of functionality and efficiency, and women, due to its beauty, intelligence and style. And it's bound to please children as well: to their eyes it will be attractively spacious. In short, the Fiat 500L MPW is the superlative expression of Fiat's characteristic ingenuity in creating vehicles that make everyday life more simple, and a bit more fun as well.

At launch, the Fiat 500L MPW will be equipped with two petrol engines - 95 HP 1.4 16v and 105 HP 0.9 TwinAir Turbo - as well as two turbodiesels: 105 HP 1.6 MultiJet II and 85 HP 1.3 MultiJet II, the latter also with automatic transmission.

The range includes two trim levels (Pop Star and Lounge), both with 5 or 7 seats, 19 body colours (including 11 two-tone combinations) and 6 interior trims, 15 different types in terms of alloy wheels and hub caps: in total, no fewer than 282 combinations are possible. The new Fiat 500L MPW offers equipment worthy of a higher segment, as demonstrated by the new leather interiors, integrated navigation system and rear camera to assist with reversing manoeuvres.

The Fiat 500L MPW will be produced in the new Serbian factory at Kragujevac, while orders will open in July in Italy, to be extended progressively to the other countries of Europe.

DORCHESTER TOWN FC by Stuart Broom

Heath looking forward to the challenge

DORCHESTER Town's assistant manager Stuart Heath is looking forward to the new season despite seeing the playing budget cut by half, and believes he and manager Phil Simkin have the players to prove doubters wrong.

"It's a challenge. Phil and I had numerous conversations about it when it was first decided. The basic choice is to walk away or to stay and meet the challenge head on and that is what we have decided to do.

"It's more of a demanding challenge than last season for sure, but in a way perhaps it's a more enjoyable situation because we all have to step up to the plate - coaches, managers, directors, players and supporters - and make the best of the situation. If you have the right approach and attitude at the club then we can make it work. If we don't and keep on about the budget then it simply won't work."

He added: "The squad is small but they are a good set of players with ability and attitude. We will have to be lucky with injuries, get some loan players in and give our most talented young players the chance, but Danny Way, Josh Tennant and Calvin Brooks were all given a chance last season and showed up well. We can't expect them to do it every week but we know that they can do it given the right occasion so that's promising for us. I do believe there are a few more local lads can do that as well.

"When the bookies odds come out I'm sure we will be one of the favourites for relegation, but when you see that, it is just a challenge to prove the bookies wrong. When I look at the players we have signed which includes Danny Green back to full fitness, then I fully believe we will be proving people wrong."

One of the biggest remaining tasks is to persuade Nick Crittenden and Jake Smeeton to sign new contracts.

"Those two are really the remaining players from last season and we are working hard with both of them to try and agree a deal. It's very difficult because we are almost up to budget. Both are good players and both deserve to be on the money they were last season, but obviously with the reduced budget it's proving very difficult.

Negotiations between the players and us are still on going but they are crucial players for us and, if they are both fit, they are proven Conference players and we are very lucky to have them.

"You don't usually get a left back and a wide right midfielder of the quality of those two and so they do really give you value for money, but it's common knowledge that the budget is tight and we have no qualms about that because we have known it for quite a while and know the situation, but we are working hard to tie it up because we realise they are two important players.

"They both want to stay which is good and we are going in the right direction with them but it might take a few weeks to complete but we certainly hope they will be with us pre-season and hopefully during that time we will come to some agreement.

"They are two players in demand and both have clubs interested in them and quite rightly so, because they are two outstanding players who have proven over a number of seasons now that they are quality Conference South players.

"Both sustained injuries pre-season which is the worst time to do so, and it took them almost to the turn of the year to get back to their best, but when they were I thought they were probably our two most consistent performers in the second half of the season.

"With that in mind, to me personally I love both of them both in the dressing room and on the pitch and it's really crucial we keep them.

"We have lost three or four players, there's no getting away from that but we don't want to lose too many more. We've signed some good players and we've got a good squad, but it's a small squad and players like Critts and Smeets don't come around too often, and don't live in an area where there are plenty of proven Conference South players, and we have two lads who love the club, are local and proven quality.

"I think last season every player bar none enjoyed it so that's a good starting point in keeping players. The budget is tight, but players understand that and because of the success of last season they want to try and go through that again and stay at the club.

It's testament to Simkin and Heath that the players are happy to play for the Magpies.

"I don't think anyone really wants to leave the club or has left in an acrimonious way, but just sometimes the offers that come their way are too good to turn down. We understand that in the current circumstances we can't match them, and so do the players; it's a fact of life where we are with our budget.

"We certainly won't be complaining about it as we have agreed to go along with the direction the club is going and are fully behind it and we are going to work with what we've got."

Juniors in championship action

THE juniors have played their Junior Championship competition. Dorset County juniors Stuart Wight, 74 and David Lyon, 79 finished 1st and 2nd from George Seed also 79 in the scratch competition.

The outstanding score of the day in the handicap competition was the net 60 by James Phillips which put him firmly in first place with Stuart Wight, net 69, in second and Lewis Gibbons in third place with a net 70.

The seniors stableford on Monday saw some solid scores returned with David Binns (38 points) taking Division 1 from Malcolm Hinxman, 37, and Paul Galloway, 36.

In division two countback decided that John Jones, 36, beat John Hadfield, with Tony Johnstone third with 34.

Sadly the mens and ladies were fogged off but; the weather cleared for the junior stableford, and despite being cut three shots the previous weekend, James Phillips was the star of the show winning with 36 points from George Seed, 35 and David Lyon, 34.

WEYMOUTH RAIDERS BASKETBALL

Raiders have reasons to be cheerful

IN SPITE of completing a season in which victories were hard to come by, there were still reasons for Weymouth Raiders basketball team to celebrate at the recent Exeter & District League Award Presentation Evening.

Rising star Jordan Daniels won the League's Young Player of the Year Award as well as finishing runner-up for the title of Division Two Most Valuable Player.

At just 17 there is no doubt Daniels has a bright future ahead of him. Sadly for Weymouth Basketball Club Jordan has secured a scholarship to a top basketball academy in the London area, where he will complete his academic education next year as well as benefiting from more intense competition and coaching.

Raiders are the third men's team at Weymouth Basketball Club and aim to develop young players to move on up to the Cowboys and the Bandits.

As such, league competition against much more experienced teams can be very tough and this season they managed just three wins in 17 games.

However they were voted by the other teams in the league as winners of the Fair Play Trophy which coach Andy Blackwood collected at the awards evening.

Blackwood said: "I was delighted to collect the award on behalf of my players. The fact that we were voted for by the other teams is very pleasing as I think it demonstrates that we played every game in the right spirit and continued to compete to the final buzzer even when we were on the wrong end of a disappointing scoreline.

"There were several games in which we dug deep and came back in the third and fourth quarters to worry our opponents. I think the other teams respected that tenacity and sportsmanship. I hope this award will give our players another little boost before the new season begins in the autumn. We'll be sorry to see Jordan go, but we wish him every success in the future and look forward to welcoming and developing new young talent to take his place."

WEYMOUTH GOLF CLUB

Robson's on top of the world

THE Robson family are riding high at the moment. The team of Tom Robson, Jon Welch and Robbie Mabb junior won the Dorset County Team Championship; the first time Weymouth Golf Club has won this trophy since its inception in 1933.

Andy Robson then won the Jack Roberts Trophy with a gross 67 pipping Tom by one shot. Keeping up the family's reputation, Steve Robson then finished second with a nett 64 in the Jubilee Cup, having been out done by Andy Cogan who won with an outrageous score of nett 60.

Weymouth Golf Club also won the Golf Mark Challenge Inter Club Trophy. The team comprising one junior, Sean Dimmock, one man Steve King, one lady, Julie King and one senior member, Pat Crane, beat 18 other teams representing their clubs at Yeovil Golf Club.

In the Ladies' Section Maria Woodham, pictured below, produced the round of the day to win the Wessex Cup with a well played nett 69 with Jackie Taylor in second place with a nett 71.

Gill Buckle won the EWGA May medal with a nett 70 to finish two ahead of Laura Johnson who finished runner up with a nett 72.

In the Men's Division, the May Stableford saw 117 players compete in the three divisions. Rob Taylor rolled back the years to win Division Three with 43 points with Martin Gray (40pts) winning Division Two and Don Philpott (39pts) winning Division One.

The Seniors Number One team has played three matches so far this year all of them at home.

The first game against Crane Valley saw some excellent golf played by some very good golfers; unfortunately it was not by team one as they lost 4/2.

The second match against Ashley Wood again had some excellent golf and the team won 4/2.

The third match against Rushmore Park was played in continuous steady rain all day, but despite the weather the team won 4/2.

SOPHIE Keach, who began her career at Lyme Regis Golf Club, has been awarded the prestigious and privileged position of Millfield School Golf Captain 2013/14 of Boys and Girls.

This accolade is another feather in Sophie's cap, saying she "feels honoured that she was chosen and is excited about the challenging year ahead."

Sophie's aim as captain is to retain many of the team and individual Trophies. She enjoys being part of the Millfield team which has achieved some great results so far this year.

June has been the most thrilling month for Sophie who is at Millfield studying BTec Sport and Golf with the support and coaching from her pro, Karen Nicholls.

This year Sophie has had to take her studies all over the world so she can keep on top of all her assignments.

Sophie's highlights at Millfield is having her pro Karen on hand each day with practise areas, driving range and putting greens indoor and outdoor to practice in her spare time and during her breaks.

This month Sophie won the Junior Telegraph Qualifier Open at Parkstone with a score of three over par; what's even more exciting Parkstone Golf Club is Sophie's new home club and she will be representing the club worldwide and is looking forward to her new venture.

Sophie has particularly fond memories at Parkstone as she currently holds the course record.

Sophie then jetted off to Jakarta to play in the World Junior Championship after she received an invitation whilst playing in China in the Faldo Final Series.

Much to Sophie's surprise she was greeted at the airport by the paparazzi and met and entertained by the Governor of Jakarta; these were just a few of the highlights of her stay.

The course was simply stunning - in top condition - yet challenging with some very tough long holes and greens.

Sophie was in top form considering playing in 47-degrees, starting her day with breakfast at 4am to get to the course and tee-off by 6:30am.

Sophie was at the top of the leaderboard and after two solid rounds, on her final round, Sophie was in second place up to the 15th hole where she found the water.

She ended up 8th in a top class ranking of players mainly from Asia, Japan and Korea just to name a few.

During the competition Sophie was being watched by the Chinese and Malaysian Golf Association coaches who have invited her to play in their championships later this year and she has been invited back to Jakarta for winter training.

Sophie is so excited by these opportunities and sincerely hopes she will be able to accept and play in the championships.

Twenty-eight hours later, after arriving on home turf, Sophie played in the British Ladies Championship in Wales which was two days stroke play in wet, wild and windy conditions!

The top 64 ladies made the cut and Sophie was one of these after two solid rounds, she was drawn out against another English player, +3 Alex Peters.

Sophie played some stunning top quality golf sinking long putts and some excellent short game which through nine Sophie was four up. She put up a tough fight and on the 18th they ended all square; the match ended on the 20th with Alex sinking a Birdie putt and winning but both girls played some super golf.

Sophie now heads off to Nottingham for England Schools final. In 2011 she was champion and last year runner-up on countback then has to dash back for her highlight of the year playing in the team for Dorset County Match week which this year is being held at Woodbury Park Devon.

The day after she is off to Rye representing Millfield School for the HMC Finals: the team are hoping to retain their title.

Sophie has a very challenging yet exciting summer ahead, travelling as far as Fairhaven for the British Girls Open Amateur Championship, to Scotland for the British Ladies Open Amateur Stroke Play and the English Womens Open, near Birmingham, not forgetting all her far Eastern invites.

Legg lifts Cattistock whilst Toohill magic downs Blandford

CATTISTOCK'S Jon Legg took his batting average to a touch under 70 this season with his second century of the campaign against Broadstone 3rd's. It helped lift his side up to third in Division Three after Portland RT suffered a crushing seven wicket defeat at the hands of league leaders Cerne Valley.

Skipper Liam Toohill was the toast of Bridport after his 7-29 destroyed Blandford 2nds following his top scoring 31 that took Bridport back into third spot in Division Four.

Times are desperate for Dorchester and Weymouth who both suffered defeat in the Premier League. Dorchester's defeat at unbeaten league leaders Parley also signalled the end of former county town skipper Martyn Richards who announced his retirement for family reasons after the game.

With Winton winning, Weymouth's defeat sees them drop back into the relegation zone with only Dorchester below them.

Dorset Funeral Plan League

Premier League

Dorchester 1st

Parley 221-4 beat Dorchester 218 all out by 6 wickets

DORCHESTER failed to inflict the first defeat on Parley this season at Dean Park going down by six wickets.

Pete Moxom (39) and Will Caldwell (10) made a steady start for the county town before the latter was dismissed, but when Rob Waite (13), Moxom and Martyn Richards were snared by Sam Thomson (2-14) and Dom Clutterbuck (2-55) they had slumped to 95-4.

However captain Dan Belt and Marcus Evans (32) revived the situation with a fifth wicket stand of 67, before Belt (55) was bowled by Alex Nippard for a hard working half century. Although Pete Diffey (25) and Phil Morley (13) added late runs, Dorchester could only post a total of 218 all out.

Belt made an early breakthrough bowling Mark Morley, solid knocks from Sam Collins (61), Tom Jaques (53) and captain Roshan Embalamaga (48 not out) saw the hosts home with 14 overs to spare.

Weymouth 1st

Weymouth 151 all out lost to Broadstone 227-4 by 76 runs

WEYMOUTH failed to capitalise on the success of last week when they were well beaten by Broadstone at Redlands.

Batting first the visitors got off to a good start with Luke Carter (29) and Pete Russell (77) sharing a first wicket stand of 68, and although Ben Lawes (1-38) dismissed Carter, Sean Hatton (75 not out) continued the visitors dominance by helping Russell add 87 before the opener was dismissed by Will McKay (2-24). John Burns (22) added some late runs as Broadstone reached 227-4 off their allocation.

Weymouth found life tough against the accurate bowling of Steve Trembath (3-35), James Rimmer (2-22) and Josh Hanratty (2-29) with only Paul Payne (24) and Ben Lawes (32) making any impression and at one point collapsed to 86-6 and it needed a late revival from Tom England (13), Matt Lawes (18) and Dave Trotter (14) to get Weymouth some batting points.

Division Two

Beaminster 1st

Beaminster 196-8 lost to Compton House 187-8 by 2 wickets (reduced target 182)

BEAMINSTER were thwarted by a sterling innings by N. Price when Compton House chased down a revised target in a rain affected match.

After the success at Winton the week before, Beaminster were hoping to build on it but some indifferent batting and the lack of a consistent wicket taker to help Ross Baker proved the downfall.

After Richie Runyard (1) had gone cheaply, Fred Everitt and Simon Jones added 85 for the second wicket and a big score looked on, but when Jones (50) went after a quick half century, failures by Will Everitt (1) and Baker (0) saw them 110-4. The loss of Wes Lewis (8) and Dan Hillier (1) saw that 136-6, before Jack Walklett (13) helped Everitt add 40. Fred Everitt was finally out for a patient 73, leaving Dave Percy (11) unbeaten as Beaminster finished on 196-8.

Rain reduced the visitors target to 182 in 42 overs and Baker (4-48) was soon in the wickets and at 52-4 it could have gone either way. However Price first with R Millard (20) and later with D Buxton (32) of whom the pair added 49 for the seventh wicket saw Compton House gain ascendancy.

Buxton's dismissal gave Beaminster hope, but Price's experience in hogging the strike and nurturing his partners paid dividends, and they reached the target with seven over to spare.

Division Three

Cattistock

Broadstone 3rd 142 all out lost to Cattistock 143-1 by 9 wickets

CATTISTOCK'S Jon Legg was imperious form once again on Saturday, carrying his bat for a magnificent 104, his second ton of the season. Broadstone 3rds had no answer to Legg as he crashed 19 fours and one six to hoist his side pack into third place with this crushing nine wicket win.

Billy Walbridge shared an opening partnership of 72 but so dominant was Legg that he only contributed ten, before Colin Mullins (22no including 5 fours) joined the former Dorchester player who moved to Cattistock at the beginning of the season, in an unbroken second wicket stand of 70 that saw them home with 15 overs to spare.

Broadstone lost a wicket in the second over without any score, but with Ben Simmons taking a particular like to Lee Anderson's bowling they looked to be on for a big score. But after reaching his half century in 46 minutes including 10 fours, Simmons (56) was dismissed and the tide turned Cattistock's way.

Wickets began to fall regularly mainly to Buddy Langford (3-25) and Bradley Damon (2-21), and Anderson whose first four overs had gone for 32 came back to concede just seven runs from his last eight overs to finish with 1-39. Despite a sterling 27 not out from B Seymour, Broadstone innings closed on 142 all out.

Dorchester 2nd v Weymouth 2nd
Dorchester 2nd 203 all out beat Weymouth 2nd 130-9 by 73 runs

DORCHESTER 2nds got their revenge for their senior side's defeat to Weymouth the week before with an easy victory at the Rec. Steve Gerety who was unable to travel with the first team due to work commitments, showed his class with a century as the county town posted 203 all out. He opened the batting with Colin Edney after Weymouth had asked them to bat on a damp wicket, and they put on 31 for the first wicket.

Rhys Cole (2), who scored a ton the previous week, fell shortly after as did Josh Foot for a duck. However, captain Stuart Beasley helped Gerety recover the situation putting on 52 for the fourth wicket before he was caught for 20.

Another collapse brought Mike Peak, batting at nine to the crease, and he and Gerety established another good partnership before Gerety was finally out for a superb 104.

Weymouth found the opening pair of Peak and James Dunham a difficult proposition to score against, and both claimed a wicket before first change Pete Horne and Beasley entered the attack and bagged three wickets each in the next 14 overs.

Only Weymouth's number seven showed any resistance with 31, as Dorchester claimed their fifth win on the trot to maintain second spot.

Beasley said: "Not only was it great to get one over on Weymouth, but we picked up another 19 points to keep us in second place in Division Three.

"There is a lot of confidence in the side at present, and winning five on the trot has given us confidence. It was also great to watch Steve bat and see his class in a chanceless innings."

Portland Red Triangle

Portland RT 173-8 lost to Cerne Valley 174-3 by 7 wickets

Portland RT were no match for league leaders Cerne Valley who had an easy seven wicket victory.

Division Four

Bridport 1st

Blandford 2nd 65 all out lost to Bridport 117 all out by 52 runs

BRIDPORT captain Liam Toohill was in devastating form for Bridport as his triple wicket maiden giving him match figures of 7-29 from seven overs ensured his side's lowly total of 117 was enough for victory.

Batting first on a wet but good wicket, Mark Smith struck the first ball for four before striking the second into the back off his leg and onto his wicket. Rod Gay (4) followed but Duane Gay (3) stayed with Toohill and he began to find his range. However, Toohill (31) was bowled with a ball that was going down leg side and caught his pads with the score on 43. Gay followed shortly after and with both Jamie Dollman (0) and Ollie Lee (1) both failing that soon became 58-6.

Alex Lee (22) and a quickfire 15 from Will Meech recovered the situation before useful runs from Cerne Iverson (12) and Ed Halson (15 not out) saw them struggle to 117 all out.

Blandford in reply were under fire from the start. Toohill took a wicket with his sixth ball, and after a maiden from Alex Lee (2-15), Toohill struck again to leave them 3-2.

The hosts then lost four wickets with the score on 15 with Toohill claiming a triple wicket maiden, before he removed opener Abbot (8) to leave them an incredible 16-7.

Blandford's captain Aaron Day came to his sides rescue and despite losing Newlands (1) he and Waites (14) managed a revival, but the introduction of Smith saw his demise, being bowled second ball for 31 to give Bridport victory.

A modest Toohill said: "Although the wicket was wet from rain when we arrived it was a regular wicket with bounce and I just bowled accurate line and length. Our fielding was superb and catches by Duane Gay, Ed Halson, Jamie Dollman and Will Meech were first class."

Division Five North & West

Dorchester 3rd

Dorchester 3rd 62 all out lost to Crewkerne 281-7 by 219 runs

Portland RT 2nd

Cerne Valley 2nd 150-8 lost to Portland RT 2nd 157 all out by 7 runs

Division Six

Beaminster 2nd

Crewkerne 2nd 92-3 beat Beaminster 2nd 89 all out by 7 wickets

BEAMINSTER 2nds made Crewkerne's second string battle for this victory which was much closer than it appears.

Asked to bat on a damp, green wicket, only Ade Phillips really mastered the bowling of Geoffrey Carr (3-18), Alan Wellman (3-9) and Adam Kember (2-24). Phillips' 31 saw Beaminster finally struggle to 89 all out from 41.2 overs.

Crewkerne were in similar trouble when they batted and were soon 10-3 with Phillips claiming Nick Bodger and Mark Pearce in a wonderful spell of bowling conceding just 11 runs from his twelve overs.

Fortunately for Crewkerne captain Richard Keylock (47 not out) and Wellman (20 not out) held firm and their unbeaten stand of 83 took them to victory although it took them 39.2 overs.

Beaminster skipper Hugh Rathbone said: "It was a tight game, and I had the feeling had we got one of them out, there wasn't much to come. However they dug in and resisted and all our bowlers made in difficult for them, but well played to them."

Charlton Down

Stalbridge 3rd 59 all out lost to Charlton Down 60-2 by 8 wickets

CHARLTON DOWN made it six wins from eight outings as they thrashed Stalbridge 3rds by eight wickets and moved into second spot in Division Six.

Charlton won the important toss on a damp and very green wicket and it was the impressive swing bowling of 15-year old Matt Stevens (3-22) who struck with only his fourth ball bowling Jon Nettleley for a duck. Stevens then had his namesake Ed Stevens (8) trapped leg before and then Jae Miller took a fantastic one handed diving catch behind the stumps to leave Stalbridge reeling on 20-3.

It was soon 20-4 when Jacob Holland snaffled a low catch at silly mid on off the miserly 16-year-old Nick Voss (2-11) off six overs, who struck again to bowl Nick Ford with a beautiful in-ducking yorker. 34-5 soon became 37-6 when debutant Jacob Holland (3-15) had captain John Arter (11) caught behind attempting a pull shot.

Louis Parkin (15) then had Mike Coleman caught at slip by Ian Doyle and Will Trevis caught by Jamie Quinten in the gully fending off a lifting ball. Holland wrapped up the Stalbridge innings with two more wickets as Stalbridge were skittled for just 59 in only 22 overs.

Charlton Down's response was to knock off the 60 runs required in only 13 overs but with the ball moving around on the green wicket, batting was never going to be easy and Luke Voss (11) was out leg before with the score on 28-1 and Jamie Quinten (5) soon followed as he miss timed a drive to cover at 40-2. It was left to Jae Miller (32 not out) to crash a four to the cover boundary to secure the victory. Miller batted very patiently but with aggression to any short pitched bowling.

Captain Pete Tucker said: "It was a great toss to win and our bowlers made full use of some very favourable bowling conditions.

"It was great to see the young bowlers adapt to the conditions, each bowler taking on board my bowling advice in these conditions and executing brilliantly. Jae Miller batted well in difficult conditions to ensure that the winning runs were hit with the loss of only two wickets."

Division One

Broadwindsor

Broadwindsor 222-8 beat Ilchester 169 all out by 53 runs

THIS top of the table clash saw a solid Broadwindsor batting performance backed up by a good display in the field.

Asked to bat Steve Phillips (51) and Chris Park (27) put on 72 for the first wicket before Richie Runyard (47) and Joe Hawkins (51) piled on the runs as Broadwindsor totalled 222-8 in their allotted overs with R Pickford 4-41 the pick of the visitors bowlers.

At one point Ilchester were up with the run rate at 120-4 helped in the main by L Gaylard (49), but captain Ade Phillips (3-43) and a late 2-2 from Hawkins saw them fall short and hand top spot to Broadwindsor.

◆ FORMER Dorchester Cricket Club captain Martyn Richards announced his retirement from regular cricket after Saturday's game at Parley for family reasons.

The genial 33-year-old said in a statement: "It is with sadness but many great memories that Saturday was my final game for Dorchester Cricket Club as a regular player.

"The rigours of busy working lives of both my partner and I, in combination with a young family, have meant that for the last two years family time is compromised too much and childcare logistics are now too complicated for me to be available for selection."

Richards took over as captain of the county town in 2007 and led his side to promotion as League One winners and to the title in their first season in the Premier League.

He retired as captain at the end of last season, but continued to play this season although not on a regular basis due to work and family commitments.

In his statement he thanked scorer Graham Belt not only for his sterling work but as a wonderful friend, and his predecessor Mark Derrien, who he claimed to be "the real inspiration behind the success we've had as a group, starting the revolution in Division 1".

He also added his thanks to his successor Dan Belt "who is now galvanising the new look 1st team which is destined for more great things.

"I'd like to thank both Deadly and Bely for their friendship, loyalty, dedication and generally being my closest allies and greatest friends in what has been a wonderful chapter of my life."

Richards ended by wishing the club well in the future, and offering to stand in and help if he could when required.

"I was hoping to go out in a blaze of glory but my lack of training over the last two years has meant my contributions have been limited.

"I hope to be able to answer any SOS calls from Dan in the same way that Deadly so kindly helped me out on a number of occasions. Thanks guys and best wishes for continued success and happiness."

Whittington stars with bat and ball

UPLYME and Lyme Regis maintained their good form in the Francis Clark Devon League Division D with a five-wicket victory over Ashburton.

The Mid Devon side batted first for 245-5 off 44 overs with Ben Whittington returning the best bowling figures for Uplyme (3-58).

Whittington also starred with the bat in Uplyme's winning total of 209-5 off 33.5 overs, carrying is bat for 56.

Adam Caddy was top scorer for Uplyme with another classy knock of 60.

The 17 points gained from this game sees Uplyme lying in fourth position in D Division on 108 points, just one point behind their nearest rivals Shaldon. Clyst Hydon lead the division on 157 points, followed by Seaton (119 points).

◆ IN the Second X1 D Division (East), Uplyme and Lyme Regis 2nds gained a maximum 20 points against neighbours Kilminster in a match adjusted due to the rain.

Kilminster batted first for 208 all out with Wallace Blackmore taking 6-43 and good support coming from Wesley Holmes (2-38).

In reply, Uplyme scored 195 -8 with youngsters Wesley Holmes (35) and Tyler Wellman (34) top scoring.

Uplyme maintain their lead at the top of the table with a ten-point lead over old rivals Axminster.

Sir John Colfox School Sports

Colfox see off the big guns at Bournemouth

THE Sir John Colfox School athletes once again showed off their prowess at the English Schools Round 1 (Dorset) Championships held at Kings Park, Bournemouth recently.

They followed their success at the Dorset County Schools Championships where they won five county titles, with two of the three teams qualifying for Round 2, the South West regional final.

Despite opposition from much bigger schools, only Poole Grammar School and Queen Elizabeth School also qualified two teams for the next stage, with private schools such as Leweston, Sherborne School for Girls and Sherborne School unable to match Colfox's achievement.

The Junior Boys (Year 7 and 8) finished second to easy winners Poole Grammar School (430pts), their score of 335 just edging out Claysmore Prep School (331), Poole High School (327) and Allenbourn Middle School (321).

Standout performances came from Dane James who scored maximum points in the 300m with one of the fastest times in England. He also excelled in the javelin, whilst Todd Langdon also did well in the 300m and also the triple jump.

The Inter Girls (Year 9 and 10) finished third and also qualified for Round 2, finishing behind winners Parkstone Grammar School and Queen Elizabeth School.

Grace Butt was outstanding in the 100m, as were Lucie Fry in the discus and Phoebe Stewart in the javelin.

The Inter Boys (Year 9 and 10) just missed out on qualification finishing fourth, 14 points behind Bryanston School who advance to the next stage with winners Poole Grammar School and Queen Elizabeth School.

Despite this there were standout performances from Liam Sayers and Adam Halford in the 300m and Will Pearce running the 100m.

Around 100 schools from the South West took part in Round 1 with the top 18 going through to the next stage.

Coach Andy David said: "All three teams competed really well and recorded some excellent results; it was a pity the Inter Boys were just edged out."

Café Oasis new main sponsors of Weymouth Ladies

WEYMOUTH Ladies FC has announced that Café Oasis will become the main team sponsor for the 2013/14 season in the South West League Premier Division.

The sponsorship, a four figure sum which is the best the team has ever been fortunate enough to attract, will see the Café Oasis logo on the front of the brand new playing kits which will be in a new look sky and navy colour scheme.

Tim Davis, manager of Weymouth Ladies FC said: "I would like to thank Paul Cocks of Café Oasis for this wonderful sponsorship. I've known Paul for a number of years, and when he called me up for a coffee and a chat I thought it was to discuss football in general.

"When he said that he was extremely impressed with the way the ladies team and set up had conducted itself on and off the pitch, and the set up with Redlands FC and the community aspects I was really proud. When he then offered to sponsor the team for the amount he has, I was gobsmacked.

"Paul has always been supportive of my community efforts, but to put his money where his mouth is really something very special for us."

Paul Cocks says of the sponsorship: "I have been following Tim and his passion for introducing sport into all aspects of the community for some time. I am really impressed with the Redlands FC set up and how that is going to transform football in the community in Weymouth and Portland. My businesses - Café Oasis and Oasis Bistro & Wine Room - are looking to do a lot more to support local causes, and this to me was where I wanted to begin.

"The ladies play at a very high level and are a passionate and friendly bunch of girls. I am proud for my businesses to be associated with Weymouth Ladies FC and to see the Café Oasis logo on the front of their shirts very soon. I'll be following their results with much interest."

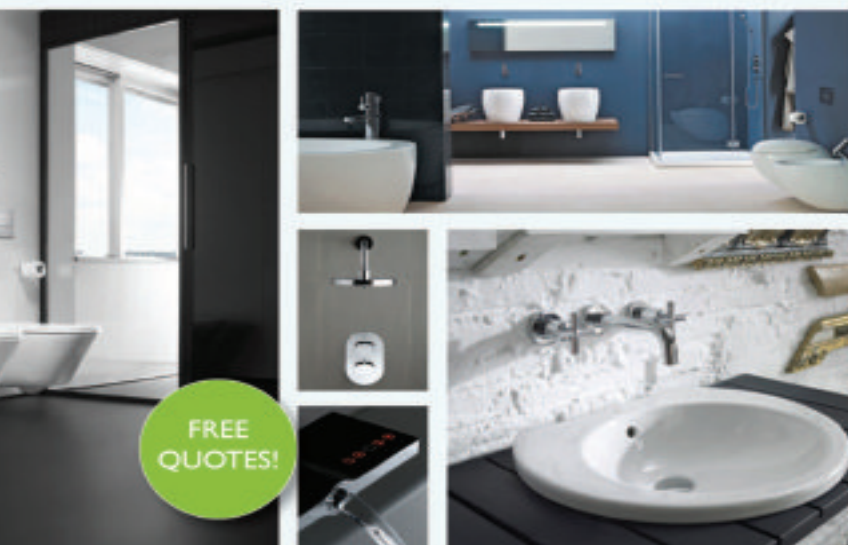

Tim Davis has been instrumental in the formation of Redlands FC, a joint partnership with Weymouth College with the aim of increasing participation of football and sport in the community. The initiative began in April 2013 with Weymouth College agreeing to become an integral part of this.
